

The Cumberland News

GREEKS EXTENDING WIDE GAINS IN ALBANIA

Dies Reports Sabotage on Experimental U. S. Plane

5 Attempts Discovered, But Ship Crashes from Defects during Flight

Chairman of unAmerican Investigating Committee Appeals for Power To Continue Inquiry

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2 (AP) — Chairman Dies, (D-Tex) appealing for a continuation of the house committee on unAmerican activities, said tonight that at least "five separate acts of sabotage" had been committed on "a most important experimental plane" at an undislosed factory.

Declining to name the plane, plant, or time of the incident, Dies said in an address prepared for the radio that the five acts were discovered before the plane left the ground, but that there was a subsequent "crack up" of the ship.

"It is highly probable that a sixth act of sabotage which went undiscovered was the cause of the plane's destruction," Dies said. "The plane's inspector warned against the plane's leaving the ground, and when his warning went unheeded, he demanded a transfer out of the experimental department."

Citing this example to illustrate the extreme urgency of expelling Fifth Columnists from defense industries, Dies remarked that a recent committee investigation disclosed that a "clique of German Nazis" was employed in strategic positions in the plant where the plane crashed.

Dies statement on the alleged sabotage:

Tried To Jam Controls

"An extraneous piece of metal was placed in the machine in such a position that it would jam the controls during flight."

"Later, a metal bar was apiced in the controls themselves, which, if it had not been discovered, would have almost certainly resulted in the destruction of the plane when it was taken up."

"Still later, it was found that bolts had been removed from the plane's brakes."

"A fourth act of sabotage consisted of tampering with the gas gauges in such a way that the tanks would appear to have ample fuel even though nearly empty."

"Finally, other bolts necessary to the stopping of the plane when it reached the ground after flight were found to have been removed."

Dies said he related this incident to show "that we dare not tolerate the presence of totalitarian sympathizers in our defense industries" and that they should be removed before they become "overt saboteurs."

The committee's life ends January 3 and the Texan said that termination of the investigation "would bring to me a deep sense of personal relief" but he also asserted that "sabotage of this investigation at this critical time would mean an important victory for the Fifth Column in America."

Axis Fears Committee

"This committee is feared and despised by the agents and friends of totalitarianism more than other government agency," Dies said.

"Knowing the importance of continuing the investigation, it is our solemn duty to spare no efforts to keep it alive. But you and your representatives in Congress have an equal duty, and yours must be the final decision. We can but point the way; the rest is in your hands."

Dies said the committee would have to be prepared for "the more subtle and deceptive type of opposition—the kind which pretends to find some good in the work of"

(Continued on Page 2, Col. 2)

J. W. Nichols

President of the First National Bank of Englewood, Ill., J. W. Nichols in a letter to patrons advised them to withdraw their savings and bury them in their back yards until safe and profitable investments can be found." He declared "because of the government's monetary policies," the bank must discontinue payment of interest on savings.

Steele Mitchell Found Dead from A Bullet Wound

President of Adams Express Believed To Have Shot Himself

NEW YORK, Dec. 2 (AP) — Steele Mitchell, 42-year-old president of the Adams Express Co., died tonight in Lenox Hill hospital after he had been found in his apartment with a bullet wound in the temple.

Detective Lieut. Vincent Kiernan said Mitchell "apparently had shot himself."

Mitchell died at 6:45 o'clock, about ninety-minutes after he was found slumped in a chair in the living room of the Mitchell's nine-room apartment at 1010 Fifth avenue.

(Continued on Page 2, Col. 6)

Seven Vessels in Convoy Torpedoed West of Ireland

Submarines Reported To Have Taken Unusually Heavy Toll

NEW YORK, Dec. 2 (AP) — Under-seas raiders struck at a convoy of merchant vessels about 500 miles west of Ireland today, torpedoing at least seven ships, while two other ships—one of them only twenty-five miles from Ireland—were bombed from the air.

Distress signals were heard here by Mackay radio over a fourteen-hour period until silence veiled the convoy's fate. At least one ship was sunk, as indicated by the presence of survivors aboard another torpedoed vessel.

During that time, planes bombed the 276-ton British trawler Kilgarron castle twenty-five miles southwest of Inisaloe, Ireland, and the 566-ton old Yugoslavian freighter Cetvrti, 1,937 tons, 150 miles to the south.

It was midnight in the new "graveyard of the North Atlantic" when Mackay heard the first SOS, indicating a submarine attack flashed by an unidentified vessel.

Size of Convoy Unknown

Later calls indicated this was but the first blow on a convoy of unknown size (convoys of twenty-five to thirty ships are not uncommon). Those ships identified in the stricken convoy all trade with the Caribbean or pass through the Panama Canal to the west U. S. coast and Far Eastern ports.

Just before dawn, a second ship, the 5,497-ton British freighter Lady Clancly, messaged she had been "torpedoed" at latitude 55° north, longitude 20° west, about thirty miles northeast of the first call.

The powerful Valencia, Ireland, radio station relayed the next word of the attack, almost two hours later, that the British ship, "call letters GKIF," was "being attacked by submarine" at 55° 03' north, 18° 40' west. Mackay radio could not identify the ship but said she probably was one newly constructed or recently taken over by the British.

Another Ship Torpedoed

An hour later, from almost the same position on the edge of the declared German blockade around the British Isles, the Goodliffe, sister-ship of the Lady Clancly, radioed she had been "torpedoed."

A second submarine then evidently joined the attack seventy miles to the north as the convoy scattered to the north as the convoy scattered to avoid destruction.

Mackay heard an indistinct call from a torpedoed ship first believed to be the "S.S. Victoria." A later message from the Valencia station,

(Continued on Page 2, Col. 6)

Roosevelt Heads South To Inspect Insular Defenses

President's Exact Plans for Cruise Are Kept a Secret

ABOARD ROOSEVELT TRAIN ENROUTE TO MIAMI, FLA. Dec. 2 (AP) — His plans surrounded with unusual secrecy, President Roosevelt sped southward toward Florida today, apparently to embark on a Caribbean cruise combining recreation with an inspection of insular defense fortifications.

When his special train left Washington around mid-day, his destination was unannounced. Several hours later, Major General E. M. Watson, White House secretary said that Mr. Roosevelt would board the cruiser Tuscaloosa at Miami tomorrow afternoon for cruise the details of which were secret.

Presumably the chief executive will visit some of the island defense works protecting the Panama canal and possibly base sites recently leased from Great Britain.

May Be Gone Two Weeks

Before departure of the presidential special, Stephen Early, White House press secretary, told newsmen that the president planned to be away from the capital until the week beginning December 15, unless official business brought him back sooner.

Early added that Mr. Roosevelt would "work directly with Washington" while away rather than have a field headquarters set up at some point near him. The secretary said that direct communication

(Continued on Page 2, Col. 8)

Hull Explains Plans

Twelve senators and six house members, meeting in a closed session, heard Hull explain the government's broad policy of extending

(Continued on Page 2, Col. 8)

Chungking Government's Confidence Given

Confidence found to support the Chungking government's currency.

This operation is expected to provide financing for China's purchase of war supplies in this country. In addition, $50,000,000 in credits will be advanced by the export-import bank for "general" purposes.

Hull Explains Plans

Twelve senators and six house members, meeting in a closed session, heard Hull explain the government's broad policy of extending

(Continued on Page 2, Col. 8)

Chungking Government's Confidence Given

Confidence found to support the Chungking government's currency.

This operation is expected to provide financing for China's purchase of war supplies in this country. In addition, $50,000,000 in credits will be advanced by the export-import bank for "general" purposes.

Hull Explains Plans

Twelve senators and six house members, meeting in a closed session, heard Hull explain the government's broad policy of extending

(Continued on Page 2, Col. 8)

Chungking Government's Confidence Given

Confidence found to support the Chungking government's currency.

This operation is expected to provide financing for China's purchase of war supplies in this country. In addition, $50,000,000 in credits will be advanced by the export-import bank for "general" purposes.

Hull Explains Plans

Twelve senators and six house members, meeting in a closed session, heard Hull explain the government's broad policy of extending

(Continued on Page 2, Col. 8)

Chungking Government's Confidence Given

Confidence found to support the Chungking government's currency.

This operation is expected to provide financing for China's purchase of war supplies in this country. In addition, $50,000,000 in credits will be advanced by the export-import bank for "general" purposes.

Hull Explains Plans

Twelve senators and six house members, meeting in a closed session, heard Hull explain the government's broad policy of extending

(Continued on Page 2, Col. 8)

Chungking Government's Confidence Given

Confidence found to support the Chungking government's currency.

This operation is expected to provide financing for China's purchase of war supplies in this country. In addition, $50,000,000 in credits will be advanced by the export-import bank for "general" purposes.

Hull Explains Plans

Twelve senators and six house members, meeting in a closed session, heard Hull explain the government's broad policy of extending

(Continued on Page 2, Col. 8)

Chungking Government's Confidence Given

Confidence found to support the Chungking government's currency.

This operation is expected to provide financing for China's purchase of war supplies in this country. In addition, $50,000,000 in credits will be advanced by the export-import bank for "general" purposes.

Hull Explains Plans

Twelve senators and six house members, meeting in a closed session, heard Hull explain the government's broad policy of extending

(Continued on Page 2, Col. 8)

Chungking Government's Confidence Given

Confidence found to support the Chungking government's currency.

This operation is expected to provide financing for China's purchase of war supplies in this country. In addition, $50,000,000 in credits will be advanced by the export-import bank for "general" purposes.

Hull Explains Plans

Twelve senators and six house members, meeting in a closed session, heard Hull explain the government's broad policy of extending

(Continued on Page 2, Col. 8)

Chungking Government's Confidence Given

Confidence found to support the Chungking government's currency.

This operation is expected to provide financing for China's purchase of war supplies in this country. In addition, $50,000,000 in credits will be advanced by the export-import bank for "general" purposes.

Hull Explains Plans

Twelve senators and six house members, meeting in a closed session, heard Hull explain the government's broad policy of extending

(Continued on Page 2, Col. 8)

Chungking Government's Confidence Given

Confidence found to support the Chungking government's currency.

This operation is expected to provide financing for China's purchase of war supplies in this country. In addition, $50,000,000 in credits will be advanced by the export-import bank for "general" purposes.

Hull Explains Plans

Twelve senators and six house members, meeting in a closed session, heard Hull explain the government's broad policy of extending

(Continued on Page 2, Col. 8)

Chungking Government's Confidence Given

Confidence found to support the Chungking government's currency.

This operation is expected to provide financing for China's purchase of war supplies in this country. In addition, $50,000,000 in credits will be advanced by the export-import bank for "general" purposes.

Hull Explains Plans

Twelve senators and six house members, meeting in a closed session, heard Hull explain the government's broad policy of extending

(Continued on Page 2, Col. 8)

Chungking Government's Confidence Given

Confidence found to support the Chungking government's currency.

This operation is expected to provide financing for China's purchase of war supplies in this country. In addition, $50,000,000 in credits will be advanced by the export-import bank for "general" purposes.

Hull Explains Plans

Twelve senators and six house members, meeting in a closed session, heard Hull explain the government's broad policy of extending

(Continued on Page 2, Col. 8)

Chungking Government's Confidence Given

Confidence found to support the Chungking government's currency.

This operation is expected to provide financing for China's purchase of war supplies in this country. In addition, $50,000,000 in credits will be advanced by the export-import bank for "general" purposes.

Draft Army Calls for Additional Effort in Checking on Tuberculosis

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.
The campaign against tuberculosis has a special significance this year because of the possible dangers of introducing tuberculosis of a new virulence by contacts from the draft army. The most rigid control methods must go into effect to prevent a rapid rise of the disease among recruits from rural areas where tuberculosis has not been prevalent.

Tuberculosis, according to modern conceptions, is spread almost entirely by human contact. In cities of large and dense population nearly everyone is infected to some extent and this infection occurs mostly in young life. All but a very small percentage of this urban population recover from their tuberculosis and in doing so acquire an immunity which protects them for life. But we have developed a large rural population who have never been exposed to the disease, and if exposed now in adult life to human contacts, might develop a severe form.

Infection Diminishing

Tuberculosis infection is rapidly diminishing in this country, particularly in certain midwestern and northwestern states and in rural areas where bovine tuberculosis has been wiped out," said Dr. Wm. Charles White, chairman of the Medical Research Committee of the National Tuberculosis Association. "And it is a recognized fact that contact with tuberculosis affords a certain protection against it."

Dr. White pointed to Nebraska, with its tuberculosis death rate of 15.9 per 100,000 population, North Dakota and Utah, with death rates of nineteen per 100,000, as states that could be considered as having an almost non-tuberculous population. The death rate from tuberculosis for the country as a whole is 46.6. The highest death rate among states is 22.16 in Arizona.

"Among the draftees will be a great number of men who have never been exposed to tuberculosis," continued Dr. White. "When a non-tuberculous group of people is confronted by the disease, the cases occur frequently run a more acute course.

Rapid Type

The disease attacks the lymph glands in proximity to the lungs and rapidly develops a toxemia with high fever, weakness, and the involvement of the body as a whole, rather than certain organs. This type of tuberculosis is more rapid in its course and higher in its death rate than the familiar tuberculosis of the lung.

To avoid the rapid rise of tuberculosis among recruits, there must be a careful and complete elimination of tuberculous men during the draft and throughout cantonment life. This must be done not only to avoid breakdown among those with beginning infection, but also to avoid spread of the disease.

The modern diagnostic methods for tuberculosis—the tuberculin skin test and the chest X-ray examination—owe much to their present degree of efficiency to the extensive program of medical research of the National Tuberculosis Association which has been carried on for 20 years under the chairmanship of Dr. White and financed by action on nerve association it causes congestion in the lungs and bronchi underneath, which hastens healing. Its principal action, however, is to reduce pain and discomfort.

Questions and Answers

P. F., Clinton, Iowa—"I would like to know what a mustard plaster does when applied to the skin of the chest, when you have a cold?"

Answer—A mustard plaster is a counter-irritant. In the surface of the skin to which it is applied the blood vessels dilate, which gives a sense of warmth and diminution of the feeling of tightness. Possibly

CLEANED & PRESSED

Men's Suits
Ladies' Dresses
Cash & Carry

59c

SOUTH END
TAILOR SHOP

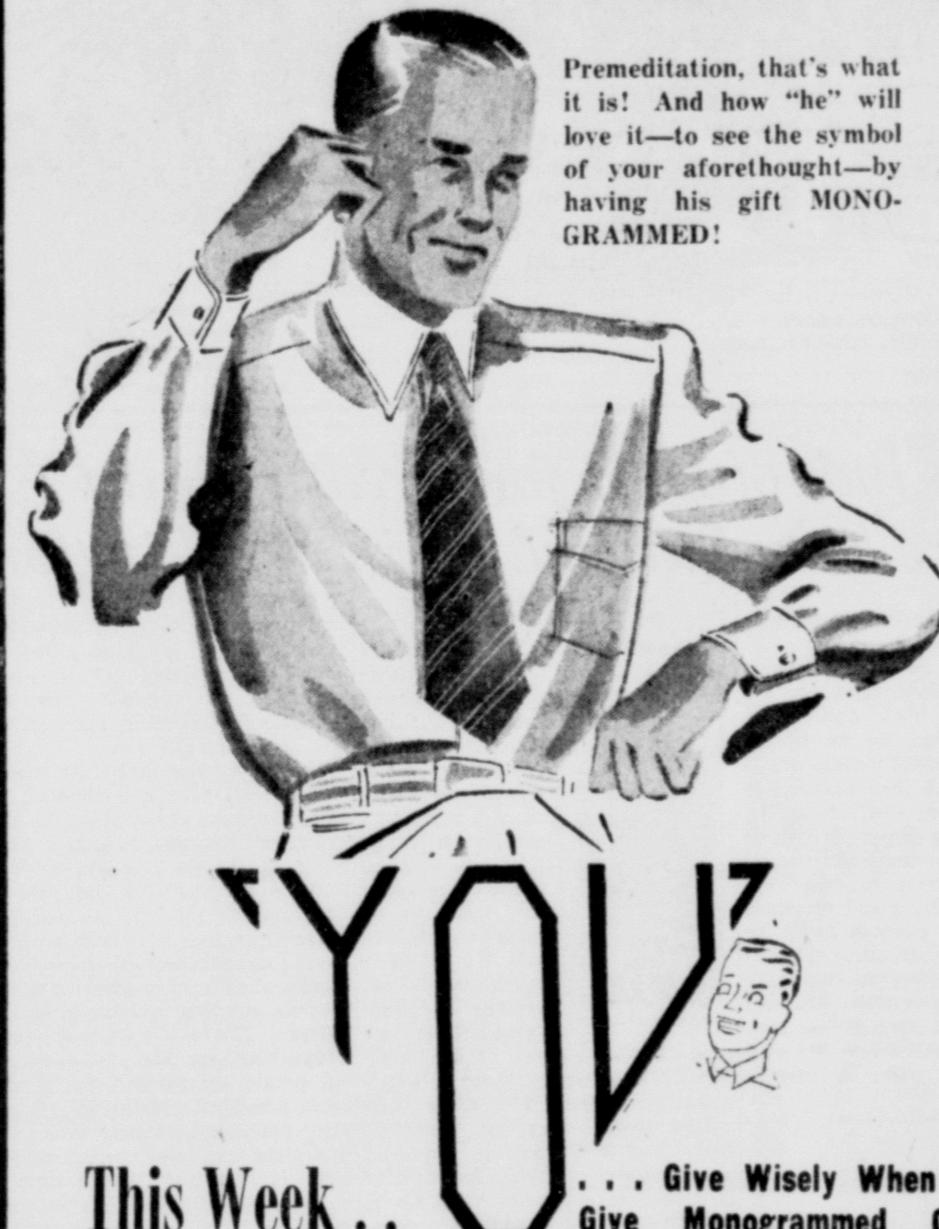

340 Virginia Ave. Phone 3248

ROSENBAUM'S

smooths out the countless worries of shopping . . . wider aisles and new fluorescent lights, revealing your gifts in daylight loveliness . . . gift wrapping stands on every floor to enchant your parcels . . . extra co-workers bursting with gift suggestions and eager to serve you . . . Christmas Gift Checks to instantly solve gift-hunting

Christmas Savings Checks Cashed

THE DOORWAY TO A

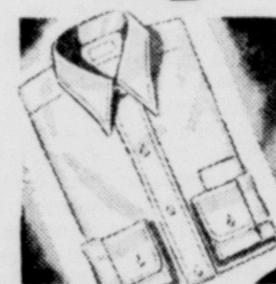

This Week . . . Give Wisely When You Give Monogrammed Gifts!

Monogramming Event!

No Charge For Monogramming These Gifts:

BSG

ARROW SHIRTS

$2.00

to $3.50

Monogrammed This Week Without Charge!

ASC

GIFT PAJAMAS

$1.98

to $5.00

Monogrammed This Week Without Charge!

BBS

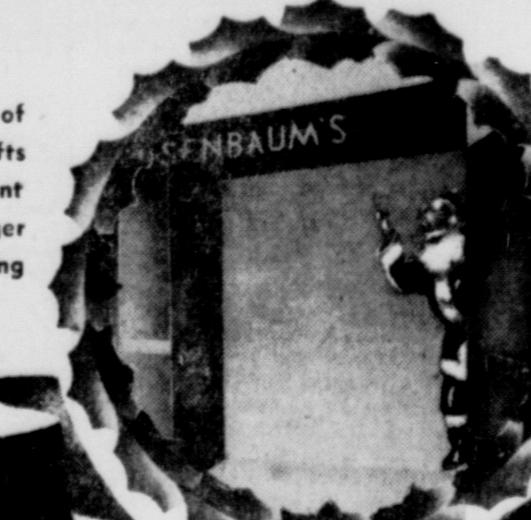

LUXURY ROBES

$5.95

to $12.50

Monogrammed This Week Without Charge!

. . . 4 elevators to whisk you from floor to floor . . . our traditional policy of lenient credit to smooth your budget problems . . . courteous service to make every transaction one of complete satisfaction . . . a battery of trucks to quickly deliver your purchases to your home . . . these are the things not piled upon counters, but which make this Christmas at the Greater Rosenbaum's, a whole month of infinite delight!

Visit Toyland, Fourth Floor

MERRY CHRISTMAS

AS SEEN IN VOGUE!

Foot to be Tied—
Georgiana Frocks
$3.98 to $6.98

In Cumberland Only At Rosenbaum's

Will Santa find you under the sun or snug at home? In either case, it's the fashion—a very merry fashion—to dress in a sunny mood. So Georgiana gives you this group of sun-maker prints—all in sleek Giana Rayon Crepe that you know and approve. Don't be bashful about gift listing your style, size, and the color you covet. Or better still, play Santa to yourself! Sizes 9 to 17, 12 to 42, 16½ to 26½.

Petticoat Lane—Second Floor—Rosenbaum's actual sketches

Georgiana FROCKS

Toyland
Fourth Floor—Rosenbaum's

Samson Card Table Sale!

NEW 1940 DELUXE TABLES!

Including TWO New Double Duty
Coasters!

$2.98

As Advertised in LIFE

The most stunning array of card tables you've ever seen! Never before such rich, luxurious tops—never before such outstanding values! They're Samson DeLuxe—strong, sturdy, washable, stain-proof! See them all—get several for card playing, for the kitchen, children's playroom, for gifts!

Note These Samson QUALITY FEATURES:

- Protected Corners!
- Smooth, Round-edged!
- Heavy, Solid Legs!
- Colorfast Tops!
- 59 More Square Inch Playing Surface!
- Double-Braced Legs!
- Stain-proof!
- Washable!
- Continuous Top!
- Nothing To Catch Dirt!

Card Tables—Third Floor—Rosenbaum's

Dr. Grant's EYE CLINIC

Phone 3528, Cumberland, Md.
58 N. Mechanic St.

FOR MEN!

Nunn-Bush "Ankle-Fashioned" Oxfords

Smiths
TENDER FEET SHOE SHOP
123-125 Baltimore St.

FORD'S SODYNES

Get That Cold in Time!
Sold at All
FORD'S
DRUG STORES

Cumberland • Frostburg

Rosenbaum's

Clergymen Challenge
Hoover Relief Plan

NEW YORK, Dec. 2 (AP) — Thirty-four Protestant clergymen and educators made public here a statement opposing former President Herbert Hoover's proposal for lifting the British blockade to permit food shipments to conquered European nations.

Challenging an assertion it attributed to Hoover that 50,000,000 Europeans would die this winter unless given succor, the statement said:

"We know of no responsible estimate which places those endangered at more than a fraction of that figure."

Toys That Help Child To Create
Are Worthwhile

Writer Says Parents Should See Child Has Play-things All Year

By GARRY C. MYERS, Ph. D.

The average child from the time he begins to walk till he nears the teens, must be doing something practically every moment he's awake. Have you ever seen a child of three or four just loaf and do nothing for five minutes at a stretch? He is constantly on the move with his feet and hands, feet only, or hands only, or is looking, examining, reading, or is mentally engaged in some other way. Even when the child of three or four is spinning yarns of fancy aloud his whole body may be in action.

I think you will agree with me that, except for out-of-door play, the average tot uses his feet too much and his hands and head too little. Possibilities for education are with the hands and head more than with the feet, certainly indoors. Furthermore, the more the child uses his feet, the less, as a rule, he annoys others in the house; the less likely, indeed, he is to get into trouble anywhere.

Teach Child To Help

Many a mother writes me of the tot who follows her about the house all day but won't play with his toys. Even then, if this mother answers all the youngster's questions and converses freely with him, both she and the child may be profitably engaged. Some such children are provided with a toy broom, sweeper, dust pan and the like, so they can "help mother." However, some mothers, being pressed for time, find their nerves tightening with a toddler always at their heels. They can reduce their problem by providing more and better things for the tot to amuse himself with and by showing interest in his crudest creations with objects and tools.

Thanks to the modern kindergarten and primary teacher, children learn at school to create with their hands and continue this at home. How fortunate the child who learns years earlier at home to build, draw, paint, paste, cut, saw, hammer. See how much happier he will be at home and how much less trouble to his mother. See also his preparation for later success at school.

Give Toys All Year

Why is it that most parents will wait till Christmas to buy playthings for their children, showering them with so many all at once, but starving them for toys the rest of the year? Why don't they get these necessary means for good education all the year round, one or so at a time?

Let me urge parents, especially of the young child, to buy some toys at once instead of so many at Christmas time. Nearly all the best toys for your child are in the toy stores and departments now and have been there since last Christmas. The same applies to books to read to the baby and young child.

Parents wishing to select toys and tools for children which will be of educational value to them, may have a graded list of such, by writing me at 235 East Forty-fifth street, New York city, enclosing a self-addressed envelope with a three-cent stamp on it.

Bucks Lock Horns,
One Killed, One Drowns

WATERTON, Colo., Dec. 2 (AP) — Death came to the victor as well as the vanquished in a fight between two big buck deer in the dense forest above the Platte canon.

From some bloody battleground high in the mountains, the winner had dragged the dead loser, their antlers locked in the death grip.

would stop and shake his head in an effort to free himself.

The crew stopped the train and started toward the buck to separate the tangled antlers.

But when the buck saw the crew approaching, he plunged over the bank into the river. The weight of the dead deer pulled him under water in a deep hole.

Community SUPER MARKET

30 WINEO ST FREE PARKING!
SAVE ON LAUNDRY NEEDS

PALMOLIVE 3 for 16c Round
CONCENTRATED 3 large boxes
SUPER SUDS 35c

KLEK 2 large pkgs. 29c

OCTAGON 10 for 33c
SOAP

OCTAGON 3 pks. 14c
POWDER

OCTAGON 3 cans. 13c
Cleanser

OCTAGON 2 large boxes 39c
Granulated

OCTAGON 4 cakes 15c
Toilet Soap

Octagon Flakes 2 large pkgs. 37c

Emperor Grapes 3 lbs. 17c

Heavy Juicy Grapefruit 6 for 19c

Try "Rub-My-Tism" a Wonderful Liniment

COLDS

666

LIQUID TABLETS
SALT NOSE DROPS COUGH DROPS

Try "Rub-My-Tism" a Wonderful Liniment

GIVE A "UNIVERSAL" FOR CHRISTMAS

The New UNIVERSAL Four-in-one SANDWICH GRILL

$9.95

Yours for only $8.95

ON EASY TERMS

Toasts Sandwiches Makes Waffles

Grills Fries Makes Pancakes

THE PEOPLES STORE

77 BALTIMORE ST.

AUTO LOANS CASH

ON YOUR CAR
IMMEDIATELY

We Specialize
Auto Loans are our specialty. We believe we can offer you a better service — more cash and longer terms. We place highest loan value on your car—1931 to 1938 models.

SEE US TODAY

NATIONAL LOAN COMPANY

201 S. George St. at Harrison
Phone 2017 Cumberland

Lester Millenson Mgr.

STEINWAY PIANOS

Instrument of the Immortals!

You may now purchase a new Steinway for as little as $495—or the magnificent Steinway S. Grand at $985.

THE EVERETT ORGATRON

With real Organ tone—Sold by

DUFFIELD MUSIC HOUSE

CHAMBERSBURG, PA.

Lloyd L. Mills, 725 Fayette St., Cumberland, Md.

"You Must See This Stunning Bed Room Suite That Just Arrived at Bernstein's It's Gorgeous!"

ALL THESE FOUR PIECES

- LARGE CHEST-ROBE
- WATERFALL DRESSER
- DROP-CENTER VANITY
- FULL-PANEL BED

$99

Live in Luxury! Have your bedroom so beautifully furnished that it will always be your pride and joy! Here is a grouping that will captivate everyone who sees it! Its superb design, fine cabinet-work, and rich walnut veneers all proclaim its outstanding value! The terms will be so liberal that every home can afford

Call 505 Taxi
For Fast Service

City 25¢ Limits
1 to 4 Passengers

24-Hour Service

Astor Cab Company

Join Our 1941
CHRISTMAS SAVINGS CLUB
Now Open

The Commercial
Savings Bank
City Hall Sq., Cumberland, Md.
Member Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

Beware Coughs
Following Flu

After the flu is over and gone, the cough that follows may develop into chronic bronchitis if neglected. Creomulsion relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm and mucus and soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly relieves the cough or you are to have your money back.

CREOMULSION
for Coughs, Chest Colds, Bronchitis

Agricola Circulating HEATER
$39.95
$1 Down
INSTALLED

Burns Any
Coal or Wood!

L. BERNSTEIN
9 N. CENTRE STREET

BLACKSTONE
106 Pcs. OUTFIT

$49.95
$1 Down

Everything for WASH DAY!

- Blackstone Electric Washer
- Clothes Basket
- Electric Iron
- Ironing Board
- Clothes Hamper
- Clothes Line
- 80 Clothes Pins
- 20 Pkgs. RINSO

L. BERNSTEIN
9 N. CENTRE STREET

YOU MAY HAVE THE
SUITE WITH CHEST OF DRAWERS AT '10 LESS

L. BERNSTEIN
9 N. CENTRE STREET

Social Events and Items of Interest for the Women

United Democratic Women's Clubs Elect Mrs. E. O. Edmunds Chairman

Mrs. E. O. Edmunds, of Bowling Green, was elected Western Maryland chairman of the United Democratic Women's Clubs, Saturday at the club's annual convention held last week in the Emerson hotel in Baltimore.

Mrs. Edmunds, who is president of the Cumberland United Democratic Women's Club, will succeed Mrs. Brewer L. Stouffer, of Hagerstown, who was elected vice-president of the state group.

Others elected at the convention were Mrs. Mary H. Duvall, who will serve as state chairman; Mrs. Annie Elliott, Baltimore city chairman; Mrs. Mayme A. Collins, of Chrisfield, Eastern Shore chairman; Mrs. Daisy LaCoppidon, of Mount Lainier, Southern Maryland chairman; Mrs. Margaret Keys, of Westminster, Central Maryland chairman; Mrs. John O'Leary, recording secretary; Mrs. Mary E. Wilson, of Baltimore, formerly of this city; Mrs. Vesta M. Carey, of Baltimore treasurer; Mrs. Ray Bollinger, of Brentwood, legislative chairman; Mrs. Herbert Foster, of Baltimore publicity chairman; Mrs. T. J. Fisher, of Chevy Chase, parliamentarian; Mrs. August Klecka, of Baltimore finance chairman, and Mrs. Lawrence Wolfe and Mrs. Helen Mackey, auditors.

A feature of the convention was home of Mrs. E. T. Dixon, 333 The card party followed a luncheon. Others players were Mrs. Morris circle to meet at the same time this evening is Circle No. 11 of which Mrs. J. T. Cookerly is chairman and will meet in the club room of the church.

Circle No. 15, Mrs. L. L. Winterberg, chairman, met yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the club room of the church. Mrs. Alex Buchanan's Circle No. 9 met at 7:30 o'clock last night at the home of Mrs. Thomas E. Gilchrist, 114 Decatur street.

Card Party Planned

Mrs. Emma Miller is in charge of the public card party which will be held at 8 o'clock this evening at the Masonic Temple by the officers of McKinley Chapter No. 12 of the Order of the Eastern Star.

Bridge, five hundred and dominoes will be played and refreshments will be served.

Club Meets Today

"Helping to Shape Legislation" will be the title of the talk which will be given by J. Milton Dick at the monthly meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club which will be held at 5:30 o'clock this evening at the Golden Gate Tea Room, South Centre street.

Prize Winner Announced

Mrs. A. Taylor Smith was the prize winner at yesterday's card party and luncheon at the Cumberland Country Club, Christie road, in honor of the employees of the Peck Shoe Store, Baltimore street.

The dinner was a two-fold occasion, first in commemoration of the opening of the new store, which replaces the old store destroyed by fire, and second to celebrate the nineteenth anniversary of the store.

Local Couple Weds

Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Mellinger, 116 Columbia street, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Irene Evelyn, to Charles Metzger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Metzger, 845 Columbia avenue.

The ceremony took place Friday, November 29 at Oakland. The Rev.

Minor Sprague officiated.

Miss Phyllis Mellinger was her sister's maid of honor and Louis Dreyer was Mr. Metzger's best man.

"It's a small world," Kit said helpfully. "And have you read anything else?"

"I didn't meet our hostess until today. I came out with Mimi. She and Gwen were old schoolmates or something."

"It's a small world," Kit said again, and realized that she'd have to go on saying something. She said, "It's a nice party, isn't it? The gardens make such a beautiful background. It looks like a set for a smart musical comedy. Have you ever seen such huge peonies?"

"The weather is nice, too," Vance said helpfully. "And have you read anything else?"

Kit smiled with effort and tried to remember who he was. His face was familiar, but her memory seemed to be as numb as the rest of her.

"You haven't had a c-cocktail, have you? P-please take this one."

She took it gratefully. The liquid washed the empty pit of her stomach. Her poise returned as her body began to feel normal again.

The large friendly face connected with a big figure in shaggy tweeds. Kit fixed her gaze on that face with rapt attention, but she never could remember, later, what he said to her for all that her attention was so firmly fixed on him.

"You were saying that you thought the Great Dane was the most n-noble of dogs. Do you remember, Miss O'Reilly?"

"Of course," she murmured, never taking her eyes from his face.

"Well, that's a very p-peculiar thing. S-since then, I've discovered that the Greeks, during the Middle Ages, s-s-struck a coin with a remarkable likeness to the Dane on its f-face."

"Is that really so?" Her voice seemed to belong to someone else.

"The whole history of the Dane isn't quite clear b-because there's a lack of s-scientific data about all b-big dogs. Although it is known that in Eng-Eng-England and Central Europe—"

Vance's voice cut in on the history:

"Fancy seeing you here," he said at Kit's elbow.

Kit had learned to school herself

(To Be Continued)

FLASH GORDON—On the Planet Mongo

DICK TRACY—Temporary Haven

HOMER MARTIN AND HIS BRIDE

Homer Martin, former president of the United Automobile Workers Union, is pictured with his bride, the former Vivian Fox, after their marriage at his Detroit home. She was Martin's secretary during his U. A. W. presidency. He was recently granted a divorce from his first wife.

Rosenbaum, Mrs. Walter C. Capper, Miss Elizabeth L. Lowndes, Mrs. J. T. Boyd, Mrs. Thomas B. Finan, Mrs. John L. Wellington and Mrs. John G. Lynn.

Peskin Employees Honored

Mr. and Mrs. Morton Peskin, The Dingie, entertained at an informal dinner last night at the Cumberland Country Club, Christie road, in honor of the employees of the Peck Shoe Store, Baltimore street.

The dinner was a two-fold occasion, first in commemoration of the opening of the new store, which replaces the old store destroyed by fire, and second to celebrate the nineteenth anniversary of the store.

Personalals

Mrs. Douglas R. Bowie has returned to her home, 723 Washington street, after spending several days in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Edwin Sawyer, wife of the Rev. Edwin W. Sawyer, 212 Bedford street, has returned from Greensburg, Pa., where she visited her father who is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. William M. Dailey, 2 Kent avenue, are home from Philadelphia, where they attended the Army Navy football game Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Stepple and children, Keith Allen and Ruth Ann, of Barryville, Va., spent Sunday at the home of Earl C. Stepple, 28 Browning street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Monroe Ridgely and children, Philadelphia, spent several days last week with Mr. Ridgely's parents, the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Vernon N. Ridgely, 144 Bedford street.

The deaconesses of the First Baptist church, Bedford street, met at 7:30 o'clock last night at the home of Mrs. Elias Gatehouse, 501 Maryland avenue.

The Ann Judson Mission League of the First Baptist church, Bedford street, will present a pageant entitled, "Foreign Mission Dollars" at 7:30 o'clock this evening at the church. The cast will include Mrs. William T. Sheally, Mrs. William Miller, Mrs. H. R. Matlick, Mrs. Erma Nicodemus, Miss Martha Gatehouse, Mrs. Carl Godwin, Mrs. V. D. Grayson and Mrs. Ruth Blacklin.

The Young People of the First Presbyterian church, Washington street, presented a program, "Christmas Light in Many Lands," at the meeting last night of the Woman's Association of the church which was held in the Lecture Hall, Washington street. A Christmas Bazaar was held. Members of Circle 3, Mrs. E. Kellough, leader, were the hosts.

Dr. Albert C. Cook will be the principal speaker at the meeting at 7:30 o'clock this evening at the Columbia Street School Parent-Teachers' Association at the school.

The Ladies Aid Society of St. Mark's Reformed church, located at the corner of Park and Harrison streets, will meet Wednesday at 7 p.m. in the social rooms of the church. The meeting will be for the benefit of the church.

They capture a truck-train of machinery, bound for Mingo's seaport. "We'll hitch-hike in style at Mingo's expense," Flash announces.

Others $1.00 to $5.75

where Dr. Twigg is attending the greater New York dental meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Drake, Hugh Drake, and Bernard Drake, of Keyser, attended the funeral in Fairmont, of A. A. Hamilton, contractor, who was found dead Friday morning.

Elmer B. Wagner, student at Penn State college, spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Wagner, 500 Linden street. Miss Frances Irene Ferrato, 313 Independence street, who underwent an operation for appendicitis Wednesday at the Allegany hospital, is improving.

Dr. F. A. G. Murray, 41, Greene street, has resumed his practice after an illness.

W. H. Lee, general secretary of the B. & O. Y. M. C. A. and J. W. Andrews, member of the board of directors, have returned from Princeton, N. J., where they attended the conference of the Central Atlantic Area council board of the Y. M. C. A.

Mrs. Pauline McManus, of Charlotte, N. C., is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. H. Lee, of 519 Avrett avenue.

Miss Shirley Belle Fier, 135 Reynolds street, is ill at her home with a streptococcus infection of the throat.

Mrs. Nellie Lee Larrimore, reported improved from a recent illness, is planning to spend the winter with her daughter in Baltimore. For the last several weeks she has been staying with relatives in Lonaconing. Mrs. Larrimore became ill following the death of her husband.

Officers Named To Help Railroad Men

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2 (AP) — The railroad retirement board announced the appointment of nine regional employment officers to seek jobs for unemployed railroad men.

The officers and districts included Peter S. Hogan, New York region covering Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania east of Pittsburgh, Delaware, Maryland, North-eastern West Virginia and Cape

Charles Peninsula in Virginia.

John J. Finnerty, Cleveland region, covering Pennsylvania west of Pittsburgh, Ohio, Michigan, Western and Southeastern West Virginia, and Northeastern and Central Kentucky.

James H. Williams, Atlanta, covering most of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Mississippi, Alabama, Tennessee and Southern Kentucky.

WORKS FULL TIME ON YOUR SKIN

When applied to itchy, burning skin, the medicated in Resinol Ointment stays in contact, giving prolonged and comforting relief.

RESINOL

A Complete Winter Air-Conditioner

This one unit heats . . . filters . . . humidifies . . . and circulates air through ducts to all parts of the house! No coal handling. It feeds itself automatically from the coal bin. Set the thermostat—and it will flood your home with clean, moist air, at the temperature you prefer. The unit contains high efficiency furnace, genuine Iron Fireman Coal Flow stoker, humidifier, and spun glass air filters.

CALL US FOR INFORMATION

BENNETT'S
THE GAS & ELECTRIC CO.
56 N. Centre St. 219 Virginia Ave.
Phone 3262

BRING YOUR INSURANCE PROBLEMS

to

CALVERT F. STEIN

Actuary of the State Insurance Department

FOR FREE ADVICE

City Hall Auditorium

Wednesday, Dec. 4

10 to 12 a.m. — 1 to 4 p.m.

Cumberland Life Underwriters Association

SAVE MONEY!

Finance Your

New Car

Through The Peoples Bank

Of Cumberland

WILLIAM H. KIGHT

FUNERAL DIRECTOR

128 COLUMBIA ST.

MODERN FUNERAL SERVICE

Phone Day or Night 1454

Others $1.00 to $5.75

Newest And Smartest Fashions In

Millinery

$1.98

Others $1.00 to $5.75

CRISCO

3 lb. can 43c

IVORY SOAP

10 med. bxs 46c

GIANT BARS—3 FOR 23c

CHIPSO

2 lge. bars 33c

THE DAILY STORY

MUSIC MASTER

A Great Musician and How He Refused To Let the Board of Directors Retire Him

By ELIZABETH BUCK

"We shall make out golden anniversary concert perfect," the white-haired music master prophesied as he and the symphony librarian went through the high stacked files of orchestral scores in the music library. His clear blue eyes blazed against the ruddiness of his face and the silvery white of his unkempt hair. "It will be one to remember!"

"It doesn't seem possible that so many years have slipped through our fingers," Arnold said. "But, yes, I remember so many years ago when you were a fine, straight young musician with nothing much but a dream with which to begin!"

Arnold Manning chuckled contentedly as he fingered a score. "Ah, yes, dream it was—but we made it come true, didn't we, Alex?" He smiled to himself. "Today the orchestra is famous."

"You have done a job worthy of a musician," the librarian agreed. "Perhaps you will be content now, since you have reached the 50th year of service to the public, to rest on your laurels!"

"What you mean, Alex?" Manning demanded, fixing his old eye with a scornful stare. "I have just to rest. Manning didn't reply, and his shoulders sagged forward weary.

Corliss bent down and viewed him in alarm. He noted the smile on Manning's face, the glazing eyes. A hush in the green room contracted sharply with the riotous applause out front. He lifted the frail frame of the old man and set it on a couch.

"You were right, old friend—you never retire!" he said simply.

"All else fades—art alone endures!"

Distributed by United Feature Syndicate.

Learning Feature Takes New Spot On Radio Chain

Columbia Program Makes Room for Concerts by Kostelanetz

By C. E. BUTTERFIELD

Associated Press Radio Editor

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—The educational feature of the CBS network, Invitation to Learning, which heretofore had been a Sunday afternoon broadcast, is now taking its place on the Tuesday night schedule at 10:15. It moved out of Sunday to make way for the new Andre Kostelanetz sponsored concert.

The first night broadcast is to concern itself with a discussion of Henry Adams' autobiography, "The Education of Henry Adams," with Mark Van Doren poet; Huntington Cairns, attorney and literary critic; and Allen Tate of Princeton university participating.

Burns and Allen Special

Grace Allen and husband George Burns are to put on a special twenty-five minute program on behalf of the United States navy recruiting drive via WEAF-NBC at 6. The broadcast will come from the naval training station at San Diego, Calif. Other entertainers from the B and A Monday night program will be on hand.

Edward Weeks is to conduct his WJZ-NBC half hour at 10:30 in a "Speak American" period. In other words it will be a contrast between the vocal style of Broadway and Boston.

Dr. Harold Lasswell's Human Nature in Action on WEAF-NBC at 11:15 is to treat on "Communication."

Commentator Fulton Lewis, Jr. will be the speaker in the MBS broadcast of the anniversary banquet of station WROK of Rockford, Ill., at 8:15.

War's list: CBS 8, 9 a. m., 6:45, 8:55, 10:45 p. m.; NBC 8 a. m., 1:45 p. m., 2:12 mid.; MBS 10, 11, 11:30 a. m., 12:15, 2, 8, 10, 11 p. m., 12:30 a. m.; NBC-RED 7:15, 7:45 p. m.; WJZ-NBC 8:30.

By Networks

WEAF-NBC — 1:15 p. m. Tony Wons scrapbook; 2 Hymns of All Churches; 5:15 Serial, Lone Journey; 6:30 Reveries; 8 Johnny Presents; 8:30 Horace Heldt quiz; 9 Battle of the Sexes; 9:30 Fibber McGee and Molly; 10 Bob Hope's variety; 10:30 Uncle Walt and the doghouse.

WABC-CBS — 3:45 Children also are people; 5 The Goldbergs; 7:15 Songs of Lanny Ross; 8 Court of Missing Heirs; 8:30 First Nighter drama; 9 We the People; 9:30 Professor Quiz of the quizzes; 10 Glenn Miller's orchestra; 11:15 Dance bands and news.

WJZ-NBC — 9 a. m. Breakfast

petitions began to be circulated demanding that the famous old master be retained to guide the symphony. The management was deluged with angry letters, civic groups made public speeches denouncing it. It warmed Manning's heart. He went quietly about the business of rehearsing the orchestra. Even the theater-wise music critics stayed for the entire anniversary performance, although the applause between numbers was such as to delay the proceedings unduly.

At the conclusion of the performance, he made a little speech straight from his heart thanking them for their kindness and the faith that they had in his work. A dozen trips he made to the podium from the green room to acknowledge their acclaim. At last he remained in the green room. He was tired, but elated.

"Perhaps you had better go out just once more, Arnold. You were right—you will never retire until you choose!" Corliss gently suggested, his hand on the music master's shoulder as he sat on a chair begun my career. Why should I end it now? I am sure with enthusiasm!" Alex shrugged and laid down the pile of music:

"I have heard around the concert hall that the manager thought that you should give way to a younger man, Trent Kimberley—" Manning banged a gnarled fist into his palm and screwed up his face in dismay.

Trent Kimberley? Certainly he's a good musician—I brought him up myself from his musical infancy," he said. "But to take my place? Never! In music there is no age, my friend!"

"I only tell you what I heard, my old friend," Alex insisted. But Manning gruffly disregarded the idea.

"We shall give them a feast of the three B's—Bach, Beethoven, Brahms!" he decided. "To balance it, some Ravel, a touch of Debussy, and a bit of Sibelius. Ah, it will be a wonderful program you will see!"

The old librarian knew the futility of argument with the old music master. Too many years he had followed the dynamic trail Arnold Manning had blazed. He wondered if Manning himself knew how old he was. The arch of the back after so many years over a conductor's stand, the pallor which came from endless hours in the concert hall! Wordlessly he went back to his work.

It is more than likely that your

ter's shoulder as he sat on a chair

Corliss smiled sadly. "If it is to be, it will be! I hope you are right—but I know that you are wrong, Arnold. You must face it!"

Long before the night of the concert the news had leaked out that the great Arnold Manning was to be arbitrarily shelved following his anniversary performance. The public was up in arms.

Petitions began to be circulated demanding that the famous old master be retained to guide the symphony. The management was deluged with angry letters, civic groups made public speeches denouncing it. It warmed Manning's heart. He went quietly about the business of rehearsing the orchestra. Even the theater-wise music critics stayed for the entire anniversary performance, although the applause between numbers was such as to delay the proceedings unduly.

At the conclusion of the performance, he made a little speech straight from his heart thanking them for their kindness and the faith that they had in his work. A dozen trips he made to the podium from the green room to acknowledge their acclaim. At last he remained in the green room. He was tired, but elated.

"Perhaps you had better go out just once more, Arnold. You were right—you will never retire until you choose!" Corliss gently suggested, his hand on the music master's shoulder as he sat on a chair

begun my career. Why should I end it now? I am sure with enthusiasm!" Alex shrugged and laid down the pile of music:

"I have heard around the concert hall that the manager thought that you should give way to a younger man, Trent Kimberley—" Manning banged a gnarled fist into his palm and screwed up his face in dismay.

Trent Kimberley? Certainly he's a good musician—I brought him up myself from his musical infancy," he said. "But to take my place? Never! In music there is no age, my friend!"

"I only tell you what I heard, my old friend," Alex insisted. But Manning gruffly disregarded the idea.

"We shall give them a feast of the three B's—Bach, Beethoven, Brahms!" he decided. "To balance it, some Ravel, a touch of Debussy, and a bit of Sibelius. Ah, it will be a wonderful program you will see!"

The old librarian knew the futility of argument with the old music master. Too many years he had followed the dynamic trail Arnold Manning had blazed. He wondered if Manning himself knew how old he was. The arch of the back after so many years over a conductor's stand, the pallor which came from endless hours in the concert hall! Wordlessly he went back to his work.

It is more than likely that your

ter's shoulder as he sat on a chair

Corliss smiled sadly. "If it is to be, it will be! I hope you are right—but I know that you are wrong, Arnold. You must face it!"

Long before the night of the concert the news had leaked out that the great Arnold Manning was to be arbitrarily shelved following his anniversary performance. The public was up in arms.

Petitions began to be circulated demanding that the famous old master be retained to guide the symphony. The management was deluged with angry letters, civic groups made public speeches denouncing it. It warmed Manning's heart. He went quietly about the business of rehearsing the orchestra. Even the theater-wise music critics stayed for the entire anniversary performance, although the applause between numbers was such as to delay the proceedings unduly.

At the conclusion of the performance, he made a little speech straight from his heart thanking them for their kindness and the faith that they had in his work. A dozen trips he made to the podium from the green room to acknowledge their acclaim. At last he remained in the green room. He was tired, but elated.

"Perhaps you had better go out just once more, Arnold. You were right—you will never retire until you choose!" Corliss gently suggested, his hand on the music master's shoulder as he sat on a chair

begun my career. Why should I end it now? I am sure with enthusiasm!" Alex shrugged and laid down the pile of music:

"I have heard around the concert hall that the manager thought that you should give way to a younger man, Trent Kimberley—" Manning banged a gnarled fist into his palm and screwed up his face in dismay.

Trent Kimberley? Certainly he's a good musician—I brought him up myself from his musical infancy," he said. "But to take my place? Never! In music there is no age, my friend!"

"I only tell you what I heard, my old friend," Alex insisted. But Manning gruffly disregarded the idea.

"We shall give them a feast of the three B's—Bach, Beethoven, Brahms!" he decided. "To balance it, some Ravel, a touch of Debussy, and a bit of Sibelius. Ah, it will be a wonderful program you will see!"

The old librarian knew the futility of argument with the old music master. Too many years he had followed the dynamic trail Arnold Manning had blazed. He wondered if Manning himself knew how old he was. The arch of the back after so many years over a conductor's stand, the pallor which came from endless hours in the concert hall! Wordlessly he went back to his work.

It is more than likely that your

ter's shoulder as he sat on a chair

Corliss smiled sadly. "If it is to be, it will be! I hope you are right—but I know that you are wrong, Arnold. You must face it!"

Long before the night of the concert the news had leaked out that the great Arnold Manning was to be arbitrarily shelved following his anniversary performance. The public was up in arms.

Petitions began to be circulated demanding that the famous old master be retained to guide the symphony. The management was deluged with angry letters, civic groups made public speeches denouncing it. It warmed Manning's heart. He went quietly about the business of rehearsing the orchestra. Even the theater-wise music critics stayed for the entire anniversary performance, although the applause between numbers was such as to delay the proceedings unduly.

At the conclusion of the performance, he made a little speech straight from his heart thanking them for their kindness and the faith that they had in his work. A dozen trips he made to the podium from the green room to acknowledge their acclaim. At last he remained in the green room. He was tired, but elated.

"Perhaps you had better go out just once more, Arnold. You were right—you will never retire until you choose!" Corliss gently suggested, his hand on the music master's shoulder as he sat on a chair

begun my career. Why should I end it now? I am sure with enthusiasm!" Alex shrugged and laid down the pile of music:

"I have heard around the concert hall that the manager thought that you should give way to a younger man, Trent Kimberley—" Manning banged a gnarled fist into his palm and screwed up his face in dismay.

Trent Kimberley? Certainly he's a good musician—I brought him up myself from his musical infancy," he said. "But to take my place? Never! In music there is no age, my friend!"

"I only tell you what I heard, my old friend," Alex insisted. But Manning gruffly disregarded the idea.

"We shall give them a feast of the three B's—Bach, Beethoven, Brahms!" he decided. "To balance it, some Ravel, a touch of Debussy, and a bit of Sibelius. Ah, it will be a wonderful program you will see!"

The old librarian knew the futility of argument with the old music master. Too many years he had followed the dynamic trail Arnold Manning had blazed. He wondered if Manning himself knew how old he was. The arch of the back after so many years over a conductor's stand, the pallor which came from endless hours in the concert hall! Wordlessly he went back to his work.

It is more than likely that your

ter's shoulder as he sat on a chair

Corliss smiled sadly. "If it is to be, it will be! I hope you are right—but I know that you are wrong, Arnold. You must face it!"

Long before the night of the concert the news had leaked out that the great Arnold Manning was to be arbitrarily shelved following his anniversary performance. The public was up in arms.

Petitions began to be circulated demanding that the famous old master be retained to guide the symphony. The management was deluged with angry letters, civic groups made public speeches denouncing it. It warmed Manning's heart. He went quietly about the business of rehearsing the orchestra. Even the theater-wise music critics stayed for the entire anniversary performance, although the applause between numbers was such as to delay the proceedings unduly.

At the conclusion of the performance, he made a little speech straight from his heart thanking them for their kindness and the faith that they had in his work. A dozen trips he made to the podium from the green room to acknowledge their acclaim. At last he remained in the green room. He was tired, but elated.

"Perhaps you had better go out just once more, Arnold. You were right—you will never retire until you choose!" Corliss gently suggested, his hand on the music master's shoulder as he sat on a chair

begun my career. Why should I end it now? I am sure with enthusiasm!" Alex shrugged and laid down the pile of music:

"I have heard around the concert hall that the manager thought that you should give way to a younger man, Trent Kimberley—" Manning banged a gnarled fist into his palm and screwed up his face in dismay.

Trent Kimberley? Certainly he's a good musician—I brought him up myself from his musical infancy," he said. "But to take my place? Never! In music there is no age, my friend!"

"I only tell you what I heard, my old friend," Alex insisted. But Manning gruffly disregarded the idea.

"We shall give them a feast of the three B's—Bach, Beethoven, Brahms!" he decided. "To balance it, some Ravel, a touch of Debussy, and a bit of Sibelius. Ah, it will be a wonderful program you will see!"

The old librarian knew the futility of argument with the old music master. Too many years he had followed the dynamic trail Arnold Manning had blazed. He wondered if Manning himself knew how old he was. The arch of the back after so many years over a conductor's stand, the pallor which came from endless hours in the concert hall! Wordlessly he went back to his work.

It is more than likely that your

ter's shoulder as he sat on a chair

Corliss smiled sadly. "If it is to be, it will be! I hope you are right—but I know that you are wrong, Arnold. You must face it!"

Long before the night of the concert the news had leaked out that the great Arnold Manning was to be arbitrarily shelved following his anniversary performance. The public was up in arms.

Petitions began to be circulated demanding that the famous old master be retained to guide the symphony. The management was deluged with angry letters, civic groups made public speeches denouncing it. It warmed Manning's heart. He went quietly about the business of rehearsing the orchestra. Even the theater-wise music critics stayed for the entire anniversary performance, although the applause between numbers was such as to delay the proceedings unduly.

At the conclusion of the performance, he made a little speech straight from his heart thanking them for their kindness and the faith that they had in his work. A dozen trips he made to the podium from the green room to acknowledge their acclaim. At last he remained in the green room. He was tired, but elated.

"Perhaps you had better go out just once more, Arnold. You were right—you will never retire until you choose!" Corliss gently suggested, his hand on the music master's shoulder as he sat on a chair

begun my career. Why should I end it now? I am sure with enthusiasm!" Alex shrugged and laid down the pile of music:

"I have heard around the concert hall that the manager thought that you should give way to a younger man, Trent Kimberley—" Manning banged a gnarled fist into his palm and screwed up his face in dismay.

Trent Kimberley? Certainly he's a good musician—I brought him up myself from his musical infancy," he said. "But to take my place? Never! In music there is no age, my friend!"

"I only tell you what I heard, my old friend," Alex insisted. But Manning gruffly disregarded the idea.

"We shall give them a feast of the three B's—Bach, Beethoven, Brahms!" he decided. "To balance it, some Ravel, a touch of Debussy, and a bit of Sibelius. Ah, it will be a wonderful program you will see!"

The old librarian knew the futility of argument with the old music master. Too many years he had followed the dynamic trail Arnold Manning had blazed. He wondered if Manning himself knew how old he was. The arch of the back after so many years over a conductor's stand,

Sick Woman Carried from Rooms During Fire in a Grocery Store

Other Tenants Forced Out of Kline Building, N.
Mechanic Street

Three Cumberland fire companies, Central East Side and West Side, helped extinguish a fire in Kline's grocery store, 700 North Mechanic street, early this morning. Damage was estimated by the proprietor, Maurice Kline, at more than $1,000 to perishable goods besides heavy damage to fixtures.

The building is a three-story brick structure, the upper two floors being used as apartments. Firemen carried Mrs. Ada Lease Twigg, who is ill, out in a chair. She was visiting a relative, Mrs. Ester Twigg, a tenant. Other tenants were forced to leave hurriedly.

Originating in the cellar from an undetermined cause the fire appeared to spread rapidly and caused a dense smoke to envelope the building and neighborhood. The fire was discovered by Glenn Nine, who called the Central department. The other two departments were called a few minutes later when the smoke made it appear that the fire was a major one.

Gateway Chatter

(Continued from Page 16)

boost in the price of hunting licenses.

Every sportsman of any standing in the community was on the pan and those who were present as spectators were suited right and left.

Joe Minke, the regional game warden, is reported to have put up a commendable defensive fight against "superior" odds and Wes Kelley, after being hit with everything but the water bucket, still had enough energy to walk out smiling after the lively session. Even Delegate Dick wanted to put on the gloves after hearing his friend take an unmerciful ribbing.

Most of the unpleasantness was caused by a disgruntled person from the eastern end of the county who continually harangued the speakers, charged them with "selling out to politicians" and what not, and finally the meeting broke up in a free-for-all argument.

It turned out to be a genuine "protest" meeting with the protestants failing to get to first base.

This sport item may seem out of place in this column, yet it brings back memories of the days when Cumberland boasted one of the strongest teams in Class "C" organized baseball.

An item from Canton, Ohio several days ago stated that Elmer Daily was re-elected president of the Middle Atlantic League for the seventeenth time and that the circuit may expand to ten teams in 1941.

It was just nine years ago that Cumberland was represented in the only twelve-club circuit in the history of organized baseball.

The league was headed by Daily and was known as "Daily's Dozen." Cumberland won the championship that year (1931) by defeating the Charleston (W. Va.) Senators in the playoff series.

Quiz

(Continued from Page 16)

Culture Civilization Improved Mankind?

Feb. 23—Are We Americans Basically of Moral People?

List of Guests

Those who attended last night's dinner were: Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brown, Floyd Grace, Frank Lee Carl, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Bishop, Arthur R. Mosler, Jr., George M. Young, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wetzel, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lee, Mrs. Pauline McManus, Mr. and Mrs. Arch M. Hutcheson, Dr. Adam Baer, Mrs. Jane Pier, Miss Pauline Whitman, S. Louis Curt, C. Henry Holzhu, Walter G. Bell, Auressa Beckes, Patricia Phillips, Stewart W. Phillips, Albert L. Rogers, Robert Rosamond, Frank V. Becker, Hermann M. Neumann, Harry S. Larmon, D. L. D'Amico and James B. Craig.

Sub-Committee

(Continued from Page 16)

to twenty-seven, carrying designs of the different projects.

4—Drawings, including four maps showing various design studies.

To Make Further Study

Because of the scope and volume of the extensive report, the sub-committee members decided it will be necessary to give the matter further study before making any recommendations to the general committee.

William Claus, a member of the sub committee, last night gave an exhaustive report analyzing the plans embodied in the report from Col. Thomas.

Sixteen

(Continued from Page 16)

to prevent possibility that their khaki hunting outfits, which make them look slightly deerish from a distance, would draw the fire of other hunters.

Deer reported killed yesterday in Allegany and Garrett counties are listed as follows:

Allegany County

J. W. Norris, of Long, Md., nine point, 140 pounds, on Town Hill.

George Moody, 435 Columbia street, eight point, 160 pounds, Maple Run section of Greene Ridge.

Theodore Maphis, 1322 Virginia Avenue, eleven point, 215 pounds, on Town Hill.

John Kerns, Picard, Md., nine point, 140 pounds, on Town Hill.

Raymond J. Ritchie, Route 5, (McMullen highway), eight point, 140 pounds, on Town Hill.

S. E. Huston, 72 Oldtown Road, eight point, 140 pounds, on Evitts' mountain.

G. F. Crawford, 1100 Michigan Avenue, five point, 120 pounds, on Green Ridge.

George P. Davis, Warrior Mountain, eight point, 200 pounds, on Warrior Mountain.

Fred W. Novisher, Ellicott City, Md., eight point, 180 pounds, on Green Ridge.

Michael S. Duckworth, Westernport, eight point, 150 pounds, on Savage Mountain.

Fred Powell, 1626 Bedford street, nine point, 220 pounds, on Town Hill.

John Dorsey, 454 Pine Avenue, six point, 125 pounds, on Wills Mountain, two miles out Valley road.

Ernest Stickley, 310 Offutt street, seven point, 150 pounds, on Town Hill.

Taylor McLaughlin, Town Creek, eight point, 200 pounds, on Green Ridge.

B. M. Hinkle, Flintstone, eight point, 240 pounds, on Martin's Mountain.

Stanley L. Donahoe, Red Hill, seven points, 135 pounds, on Evitts' Mountain.

Garrett County

Lloyd H. Loar, Loartown, seven point, 150 pounds, on Meadow Mountain.

Randolph Rush, Long Stretch, eleven point, 175 pounds, on Red Ridge.

Ed. Dinkenberger, Cresapton, eight point, 200 pounds, on Keyser Ridge.

William White, Oakland, ten point, 160 pounds, on Gregory Ridge, near Deep Creek lake.

Homer Gladfrey, Oakland, five point, 120 pounds, at McHenry, near Deep Creek Lake.

B. E. Evans, Vindex, eight points, 150 pounds, at King's Run, Swallow Falls section.

W. A. Brady, Vindex, eight point, 155 pounds, at King's Run, Swallow Falls section.

Thurl Tower, Oakland, twelve point, 175 pounds, at Marsh Hill, near Deep Creek Lake.

Arthur J. Wilson, 312 Emily street, Cumberland, nine point, 225 pounds, at Piney Run, near Deep Creek Lake.

Clayton Gough, Kitzmiller, twelve point, 200 pounds, at Marsh Hill, near Deep Creek Lake.

Joseph Whittore, Oakland, five point, 130 pounds, at Marsh Hill.

James D. n, Oakland, eight point, 160 pounds, on Backbone mountain.

Snyder Neville, Oakland, six point, 140 pounds, on Snaggy mountain, near the Preston county (W. Va.) line.

Eugene Nazelrod, Deer Park, two point, in Deep Creek section.

John M. Rhodes, Swanton, eight point, near Swanton cemetery.

Printers

Ralph Albright Is Held for Grand Jury On Larceny Charge

Ralph Albright, this city, yesterday was committed to the county jail in default of $250 bond to await action of the January grand jury on a charge of larceny.

Albright was arraigned in trial magistrate court before Magistrate Oliver H. Bruce, Jr., for allegedly stealing an Elgin "hunting case" watch, valued at $65, the property of R. F. Footer. He waived a hearing.

Police said Albright is under trial in a previous larceny case.

Lieut. James E. Van and Officer John H. Newhouse made the arrest yesterday morning.

Allegany County

J. W. Norris, of Long, Md., nine point, 140 pounds, on Town Hill.

George Moody, 435 Columbia street, eight point, 160 pounds, Maple Run section of Greene Ridge.

Theodore Maphis, 1322 Virginia Avenue, eleven point, 215 pounds, on Town Hill.

John Kerns, Picard, Md., nine point, 140 pounds, on Town Hill.

Raymond J. Ritchie, Route 5, (McMullen highway), eight point, 140 pounds, on Town Hill.

S. E. Huston, 72 Oldtown Road, eight point, 140 pounds, on Evitts' mountain.

G. F. Crawford, 1100 Michigan Avenue, five point, 120 pounds, on Green Ridge.

George P. Davis, Warrior Mountain, eight point, 200 pounds, on Warrior Mountain.

Fred W. Novisher, Ellicott City, Md., eight point, 180 pounds, on Green Ridge.

Michael S. Duckworth, Westernport, eight point, 150 pounds, on Savage Mountain.

Fred Powell, 1626 Bedford street, nine point, 220 pounds, on Town Hill.

John Dorsey, 454 Pine Avenue, six point, 125 pounds, on Wills Mountain, two miles out Valley road.

Ernest Stickley, 310 Offutt street, seven point, 150 pounds, on Town Hill.

Taylor McLaughlin, Town Creek, eight point, 200 pounds, on Green Ridge.

B. M. Hinkle, Flintstone, eight point, 240 pounds, on Martin's Mountain.

Stanley L. Donahoe, Red Hill, seven points, 135 pounds, on Evitts' Mountain.

Garrett County

Lloyd H. Loar, Loartown, seven point, 150 pounds, on Meadow Mountain.

Randolph Rush, Long Stretch, eleven point, 175 pounds, on Red Ridge.

Ed. Dinkenberger, Cresapton, eight point, 200 pounds, on Keyser Ridge.

William White, Oakland, ten point, 160 pounds, on Gregory Ridge, near Deep Creek lake.

Homer Gladfrey, Oakland, five point, 120 pounds, at McHenry, near Deep Creek Lake.

B. E. Evans, Vindex, eight points, 150 pounds, at King's Run, Swallow Falls section.

W. A. Brady, Vindex, eight point, 155 pounds, at King's Run, Swallow Falls section.

Thurl Tower, Oakland, twelve point, 175 pounds, at Marsh Hill, near Deep Creek Lake.

Arthur J. Wilson, 312 Emily street, Cumberland, nine point, 225 pounds, at Piney Run, near Deep Creek Lake.

Clayton Gough, Kitzmiller, twelve point, 200 pounds, at Marsh Hill, near Deep Creek Lake.

Joseph Whittore, Oakland, five point, 130 pounds, at Marsh Hill.

James D. n, Oakland, eight point, 160 pounds, on Backbone mountain.

Snyder Neville, Oakland, six point, 140 pounds, on Snaggy mountain, near the Preston county (W. Va.) line.

Eugene Nazelrod, Deer Park, two point, in Deep Creek section.

John M. Rhodes, Swanton, eight point, near Swanton cemetery.

23 Couples Obtain Marriage Licenses

Frank Voznelek, Steelton, Pa., Ellen Elizabeth Goodwin, Upper Middlestown, Pa.

Louis William Wallisch, Jr., Olga Dukes, Pittsburgh, Pa.

William Robert Hou and Pauline Clara Hartsock, Cumberland, Md.

Robert James Nichols and Louise Owens, Cumberland, Md.

Darrell Olive McLaughlin and Genevieve Eva Romesburg, Uniontown, Pa.

Leon Moore Feathers and Nell Kathleen Seese, Johnstown, Pa.

Herbert Rea and Roberta McGarvey, Berwick, Pa.

Wilhelm Francis Garlick and Audre Ella Hanekamp, Lonaconing.

Thomas James Rollason and Margaret Anna Long, Altoona, Pa.

Earl Clayton Long, Cumberland, Md.

Elsie Lucretia Carder, Oldtown.

Joseph Robert Lankard, Altoona, Pa.

P. Helen Elizabeth Smith, Bellwood, Pa.

Ardell Eugene Johns, Rochester, Pa., Cecilia Patricia Lampkowski, Ambridge, Pa.

Carl L'Estrange Hobson and Belle McBride, Romney.

Landis Frye Shriner, Martinsburg, Pa., Virginia Pauline Curfman, Paxton, Pa.

Herbert John Gilmore, Glassport, Pa., Grace LaVerne Koskie, Coal Valley, Pa.

Thomas George Hart, Pittsburgh, Pa., Mildred Kathleen Armstrong, Pittsburgh, Pa.

George Joseph Sapp and Josephine Stepanick, Bridgeport, Pa.

William McDowell Jones, Latrobe, Pa., Edna Elizabeth Pierce, Greensburg, Pa.

Charles Merle Dowdell and Laura Hood, Martins Ferry, O.

Wellington James Applebee, Watertown, Pa., Martha Alma Sparling, Marietta, O.

Ernest Samuel McKenzie, Salisbury, Pa., Grace Philomena Jordan, Meyersdale, Pa.

Arnold Everett Markle and Frances Marie Arnold, Keyser, W. Va.

Milton Claude Bowers and Jane Elizabeth Chilcott, Cumberland.

Women from Baptist church throughout Allegany and Garrett counties are expected to attend.

A box lunch will be served at noon.

Report Is Made On Road Work

The Western District group of the Baptist Women's Missionary Union will observe a special day of prayer for world wide missions, Friday.

The service will be held in the First Baptist church of Cumberland starting at 10 a.m. Mrs. Edgar N. Matthews, of Cumberland, will preside.

According to H. W. Smith, chamber secretary, this subject is being investigated by a special Senate committee and members will be asked to register their opinions.

</div

Frostburg Council Moves To Build Walk to New High School

Tucker Pioneer Taken by Death At Age of 75

Cyrus H. Parsons, Former County Member, Dies at Home

PARSONS, W. Va., Dec. 2—Cyrus H. Parsons, 75, a Tucker county pioneer, died at his home near Parsons yesterday afternoon. He had been in failing health for the past year.

Mr. Parsons was born in Tucker county January 1, 1865, near Parsons, a son of the late Thomas S. and Elizabeth Currence Parsons. He was twice-married, his first wife being Ella Wamsley Parsons, now deceased, and his second wife, Addie Mae Parsons, who survives.

Also surviving are his twin brother Rufus Parsons, who lived with him and operated a small green house at their home near here; and nine children, Mrs. Elizabeth Shaffer, Shimmon; Mrs. Lucy Freedland, Terra Alta; Mrs. Carl Roth, Kingwood; Mrs. George Shaffer, Monongah; Miss Virginia Parsons, Lewisburg; Miss Ruth Parsons, Fairmont; Lester Parsons, Oklahoma City, Okla.; Thomas Parsons, Clarksville; and John Mason Parsons, at home.

Mr. Parsons had been employed as a farmer all his life and was a life-long member of the Presbyterian church. He served for eleven years as superintendent of the Tucker County farm and as a member of the Tucker county court for two terms.

Mrs. Wilfong Dies

Relatives here have received word of the death of Mrs. Greta Mae Wilfong, 55, wife of W. C. Wilfong, Bemis, who died Saturday morning at an Elkins hospital of paralysis. She had been ill for some time and was taken to the hospital Tuesday.

Mrs. Wilfong was born March 4, 1885, a daughter of George W. and Josie Summerfield Carr.

Surviving, besides her husband, are a daughter, Mrs. Cleo Cave, Bemis; and three sons, Russell, Howard and Sterling, also of Bemis; two brothers, Simon Carr, Baltimore, Md.; and Delbert Carr, Albert, and three sisters, Mrs. Laura Summerfield Hendricks; Mrs. Bertie Carr, Benbush; and Mrs. Lucinda Gotinsky, Albert.

The body will be removed from the Kendall funeral home in Elkins to the home of Mrs. Cave at Bemis.

BISHOP OF CHICAGO

Rev. Wallace E. Conkling

The Rev. Wallace Edmund Conkling, rector of St. Luke's church Germantown, Pa., is the new bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Chicago.

'F' Club Plans Novel Program At Frostburg

Find the Boner' Is Title of Skit To Be Presented Tonight

FROSTBURG, Dec. 2—The "F" Club, a newly formed civic organization of Frostburg, will hold its monthly meeting tomorrow (Tuesday) evening at 8 o'clock, at State Teachers college. The main feature of the evening's program will be a short skit, "Find the Boner."

Those taking part will include Andrew Fuller, William Vogtman and Andrew Strutz.

After a honeymoon trip, Mr. and Mrs. Marconi will live at 32 Wheeler avenue in the Maryland city.

Superintendent Of Keyser Shops Gets Promotion

B&O Transfers E. B. Cox to Baltimore; Crockett Is Successor

KEYSER, W. Va., Dec. 2—E. B. Cox, superintendent of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad car shops here for the past four years, yesterday went to Baltimore, where he took over the post of district master carbuilder.

Cox was succeeded here by Frank J. Crockett, Baltimore. The change became effective yesterday.

Friday night, Cox was guest of honor at a dinner at Hamill's restaurant given by Keyser shop super-visors.

Marconi-Kenealy

Miss Elizabeth Maxine Kenealy, daughter of Mrs. Rhoda Kenealy, Keyser, and the late Bernard J. Kenealy, was married to Raphael Marconi, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Marconi, Baltimore, at 11 o'clock this morning at St. Martin's Catholic church, Baltimore.

The ceremony was performed by Father Spraker, assistant pastor of the church.

Miss Virginia Reese, Keyser, was maid of honor.

Mrs. Marconi, a Keyser high school graduate, has been employed for the past two years in the offices of the Montgomery Ward company, Baltimore.

After a honeymoon trip, Mr. and Mrs. Marconi will live at 32 Wheeler avenue in the Maryland city.

Keyser Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Morgan announce the birth of a son at their home on E street here this morning. The child has been named Hubert Joseph.

Mrs. H. F. Coffman and children, Mary Elizabeth, Charles and Ralph, returned to Bridgewater college, Bridgewater, Va., after spending the week-end here. Mrs. Coffman is director of women at Rebekah hall at the college.

Mrs. Elizabeth Russell Mason, Washington, winner of the Carnegie medal last year, is visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. E. B. Reynolds, Marion street. Mrs. Mason won nation-wide recognition the summer of 1939 for a record swim in the waters off Long Island to summon aid for three companions after their boat had capsized.

Games were played and prizes were won by Miss Kathleen McDermitt, Mrs. Joseph Malloy, Lawrence Malloy and Fay Keiser. An entertainment program was given which consisted of talks, songs and the recitation of poetry. Edward Malloy read a poem written by H. Loren Elliott in honor of the occasion. The poem reviewed the life of Mr. and Mrs. Malloy and their family.

The color scheme of the decorations was pink and white, and the table centerpiece was a large three-tiered wedding cake, with a miniature bride and groom adorning the top. Flowers for the table were pink and white chrysanthemums. Many gifts were received.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Malloy, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Malloy Jr., Miss Anna Louise Malloy, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Malloy, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Peninski, Mrs. Katherine McDermitt, Mrs. J. Colin Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Fanion, Miss Gertrude Malloy, Miss Kathleen McDermitt, Mr. and Mrs. Fay Keiser, Miss Margaret Grahame, Miss Marie Noonan, Miss Katherine Grahame, Miss Dorothy Grahame, Mrs. James Mullaney, Miss Mary Mullaney and Donald Keiser.

The attendants were Miss Agnes Walsh, Piedmont, sister of the bride, and Edward Cole, Washington, D. C., brother of the bridegroom.

The bride wore a powder blue street-length dress, with accessories to match, and a corsage of red American Beauty rose buds and baby's breath.

The maid of honor was attired in a rose street-length dress, with accessories to match, and a corsage of talisman roses and baby breath.

Mrs. Cole is a graduate of Piedmont high school. Mr. Cole is a graduate of Bruce high school and is employed as a machinist in the Navy Yard at Washington.

A reception was held at the home of the bride. The couple will spend their honeymoon in Florida. Upon their return they will reside in Washington, D. C.

Prayer for Peace

A triduum of prayer for peace in honor of the Immaculate Conception will be held at St. Michael's Catholic church, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday at 7:30 p.m. Devotions will consist of the rosary, sermon and benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

The triduum is part of the spiritual activity of Frostburg Council No. 1442, Knights of Columbus, and the meeting is open to all men of the parish to participate.

Parsons Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Stemple and children, Ruth Ann and Allen Keith, Cumberland, were guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stemple.

Mr. and Mrs. James Shanklin Jr., Romesford, are guests of Mrs. Nancy Stevens.

Mrs. Gordon Flanagan and son Robert, Cumberland, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. William Bonner.

Marvin Green and Guy Green, Buckhannon, are guests of Mr. W. Post.

Mr. and Mrs. Bret Allendar, Pittsburgh, Pa., returned home after visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Allendar.

Firemen's Auxiliary To Hold Yule Party At Midland Tomorrow

MIDLAND, Dec. 2—The Ladies Auxiliary of the Volunteer fire department will hold its monthly meeting at Firemen's hall Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. After the business meeting, there will be a Christmas party.

The program is in charge of Mrs. Gertrude Smith and the refreshments, in charge of Mrs. Rhoda McKenzie. Decorations for the occasion are in charge of Mrs. Constance Eisentrout. Names will be drawn and gifts will be distributed. Each member is requested to bring a ten-cent gift and the sum of ten cents to help defray the expense of the refreshments.

Midland Briefs

The Sunday school board of the Methodist church will hold its monthly meeting Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the church. Plans will be made for the Christmas season.

Robby Lasko has gone to Baltimore where he will take a Civil Service examination for an assistant clerk's post.

Trogo Tribe, Improved Order of Red Men, will sponsor a county-wide initiation of all county candidates tomorrow (Tuesday) at Fireman's hall. Great Sachem Albert E. Ritter will be present. Degree work will be under the supervision of Captain Thomas Taylor, of the district advancement committee degree team of Allegany county. There will be a "big feed," officers said.

For Sale

Electric cooking stove, excellent condition, $50.00. Harry Bucy, Dundee street, Frostburg, W. Va.

Adv. NT-Nov 30 Dec 2-3

Deer Casualties Heavy in W. Va.; 12-Point, 200-Pound Buck Bagged

The quest for savory venison took thousands of hunters into the forests of sixteen West Virginia counties yesterday, and the first reports indicated among the deer population were heavy.

High, cool weather and snow in the favorable conditions aiding huntsmen in their search for the antlered game. Several big kills were reported, among them a 12-point buck weighing more than 200 pounds, bagged near the Howesville Catholic church in Monongalia county.

Game protector Clay Messinger reported one arrest for the illegal killing of a doe and estimated twenty-two deer were bagged in Monongalia county by noon.

Farley had estimated approximately 20,000 hunters would go into the mountains after a deer supply fixed at 22,000 head.

Farley had estimated approximately 20,000 hunters would go into the mountains after a deer supply fixed at 22,000 head.

Farley had estimated approximately 20,000 hunters would go into the mountains after a deer supply fixed at 22,000 head.

Farley had estimated approximately 20,000 hunters would go into the mountains after a deer supply fixed at 22,000 head.

Farley had estimated approximately 20,000 hunters would go into the mountains after a deer supply fixed at 22,000 head.

Farley had estimated approximately 20,000 hunters would go into the mountains after a deer supply fixed at 22,000 head.

Farley had estimated approximately 20,000 hunters would go into the mountains after a deer supply fixed at 22,000 head.

Farley had estimated approximately 20,000 hunters would go into the mountains after a deer supply fixed at 22,000 head.

Farley had estimated approximately 20,000 hunters would go into the mountains after a deer supply fixed at 22,000 head.

Farley had estimated approximately 20,000 hunters would go into the mountains after a deer supply fixed at 22,000 head.

Farley had estimated approximately 20,000 hunters would go into the mountains after a deer supply fixed at 22,000 head.

Farley had estimated approximately 20,000 hunters would go into the mountains after a deer supply fixed at 22,000 head.

Farley had estimated approximately 20,000 hunters would go into the mountains after a deer supply fixed at 22,000 head.

Farley had estimated approximately 20,000 hunters would go into the mountains after a deer supply fixed at 22,000 head.

Farley had estimated approximately 20,000 hunters would go into the mountains after a deer supply fixed at 22,000 head.

Farley had estimated approximately 20,000 hunters would go into the mountains after a deer supply fixed at 22,000 head.

Farley had estimated approximately 20,000 hunters would go into the mountains after a deer supply fixed at 22,000 head.

Farley had estimated approximately 20,000 hunters would go into the mountains after a deer supply fixed at 22,000 head.

Farley had estimated approximately 20,000 hunters would go into the mountains after a deer supply fixed at 22,000 head.

Farley had estimated approximately 20,000 hunters would go into the mountains after a deer supply fixed at 22,000 head.

Farley had estimated approximately 20,000 hunters would go into the mountains after a deer supply fixed at 22,000 head.

Farley had estimated approximately 20,000 hunters would go into the mountains after a deer supply fixed at 22,000 head.

Farley had estimated approximately 20,000 hunters would go into the mountains after a deer supply fixed at 22,000 head.

Farley had estimated approximately 20,000 hunters would go into the mountains after a deer supply fixed at 22,000 head.

Farley had estimated approximately 20,000 hunters would go into the mountains after a deer supply fixed at 22,000 head.

Farley had estimated approximately 20,000 hunters would go into the mountains after a deer supply fixed at 22,000 head.

Farley had estimated approximately 20,000 hunters would go into the mountains after a deer supply fixed at 22,000 head.

Farley had estimated approximately 20,000 hunters would go into the mountains after a deer supply fixed at 22,000 head.

Farley had estimated approximately 20,000 hunters would go into the mountains after a deer supply fixed at 22,000 head.

Farley had estimated approximately 20,000 hunters would go into the mountains after a deer supply fixed at 22,000 head.

Farley had estimated approximately 20,000 hunters would go into the mountains after a deer supply fixed at 22,000 head.

Farley had estimated approximately 20,000 hunters would go into the mountains after a deer supply fixed at 22,000 head.

Farley had estimated approximately 20,000 hunters would go into the mountains after a deer supply fixed at 22,000 head.

Farley had estimated approximately 20,000 hunters would go into the mountains after a deer supply fixed at 22,000 head.

Farley had estimated approximately 20,000 hunters would go into the mountains after a deer supply fixed at 22,000 head.

Farley had estimated approximately 20,000 hunters would go into the mountains after a deer supply fixed at 22,000 head.

Farley had estimated approximately 20,000 hunters would go into the mountains after a deer supply fixed at 22,000 head.

Farley had estimated approximately 20,000 hunters would go into the mountains after a deer supply fixed at 22,000 head.

Farley had estimated approximately 20,000 hunters would go into the mountains after a deer supply fixed at 22,000 head.

Farley had estimated approximately 20,000 hunters would go into the mountains after a deer supply fixed at 22,000 head.

Farley had estimated approximately 20,000 hunters would go into the mountains after a deer supply fixed at 22,000 head.

Farley had estimated approximately 20,000 hunters would go into the mountains after a deer supply fixed at 22,000 head.

Farley had estimated approximately 20,000 hunters would go into the mountains after a deer supply fixed at 22,000 head.

Farley had estimated approximately 20,000 hunters would go into the mountains after a deer supply fixed at 22,000 head.

Farley had estimated approximately 20,000 hunters would go into the mountains after a deer supply fixed at 22,000 head.

Frostburg Legion Pushes Vigorous Member Drive

Farrady Post Signs Up Several Garrett County War Veterans

PETERSBURG, W. Va., Dec. 2 — Determined to secure a membership of at least 300 for the current year, Farrady Post No. 24, American Legion, has opened an aggressive membership campaign under the leadership of Roy Steeman, membership chairman.

After securing its first 100 new members from among Frostburg war veterans, a group from the post visited Grantsville, Friday evening, and conferred with a number of Garrett county vets with a view to having them unite with the Frostburg post.

Those from Frostburg who attended the conference, held in Firemen's hall, Grantsville, included Arthur Norris, Charles Cole, Hugh Watson, Frank T. Powers, Edward J. Ryan, Earl R. Miller, Earl K. Miller, William Festerman, Rudolph Nickel and Roy Sleeman.

The Garrett county vets at the meeting were August Hanft, Noah Frickey, Fred Durst, Harry Durst, Adam H. Oester, Charles O. Keller, John L. Detrick, Floyd Durst, George Oester, Julius Oester, Adam Hanft, Dr. T. O. Broadwater and Leonard Shaffer.

Following addresses by Edward J. Ryan, vice-commander of the Mountain district, and Frank T. Powers, service officer of the Frostburg post, refreshments were served and informal discussions of the benefits to be derived from having all veterans unite in a strong organization resulted in most of the Garrett county group joining the Frostburg post.

Delegations from Farrady post will pay another visit to Garrett county in the near future to inform the Grantsville veterans of the various benefits to which they are entitled under laws of the federal and state governments as well as the benefits orphaned children may receive from the American Legion endowment fund.

Elks Memorial

The annual memorial services of Frostburg Elks Lodge No. 470, held last evening at the new home on East Main street, attracted an audience that overflowed from the main auditorium into the anterooms of the second floor.

According to members of the committee, the attendance of members of the lodge was the largest in the history of the organization and was considered a tribute to the three prominent members, Dr. J. C. Cobey, Duncan E. Shaffer and James H. Piller, who died during the past year.

The memorial address was delivered by Edward J. Ryan, a past exalted ruler of the lodge, and the eulogies were by Noel Speir Cook. Appropriate vocal numbers were rendered by Mrs. Blanch Stanton Gunter and Misses Frances and Elizabeth Hunter, with Mrs. Lillian Speir Stewart playing the piano accompaniments.

The committee in charge of the affair consisted of U. B. F. Edwards, Thomas G. Davis and Frank R. Keene.

Dance Revue Planned

Pupils of the Steckman dance studio of Frostburg will appear in a dance revue at the Lyric theater Thursday evening, the program to be presented in connection with a motion picture and music by a local orchestra.

A few of the many scenes in the show are "Swing School," "Out of the Inkwell," "Bang Up Rhythm," "Evolution of the Dance" and the "Military Strut," which features the baton twirling class taught by Miss Steckman.

Pupils who will take part include Alma June Long, Mary Margaret Miller, Jane Phillips, Florence Long, Patsy Engle, Geneva Rizer, Wilda Ann Phillips, Dale Parker, Krista McKeen, Elizabeth Lee Atkinson, Shirley Reeder, Jo Ann Steele, Glennia Lyden, Gerry Parris, Lois Marshall, Bonny Lee Wilson, Barbara Durst, Delores Fairgrave, Darlene Wright, June Doolan, Jane Ann Danks, Mary Jo Valentine, Mary F. Kennell, Pat McKenzie, Toni Dayton, Joan Yokum, Ann Sheppard, Colleen Turner, Dottie Widner, the Beckman twins, Phyllis Miller, Wilma King, Doris Jack, Donna Jean Reed, Ruth Ann Gellner, Mary Louise Shaffer and Norma Robboson.

The production and music will be under the direction of Mary Kathryn Steckman and Mrs. Julia C. Steckman.

Poland-Sweitzer

Frederick Poland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Poland, Sr., Cresaptown, and Miss Louise Sweitzer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Sweitzer, Hill street, Frostburg, were married Saturday morning at 8 o'clock at St. Michael's Catholic church, where the nuptial mass was celebrated by the Rev. Dominic A. Bonomo, assistant pastor.

The attendants were Miss Sue Sweitzer, sister of the bride, and Lawrence Watson. The bride wore solder blue velvet with matching accessories, and a corsage of roses. The bridesmaid wore maroon velvet and matching accessories with a shoulder corsage of roses.

During the ceremony George Myers, Lonacoming, sang "Ave Maria." "On This Day, O Beautiful Mother" and "I Am Not Worthy."

Following the ceremony, a wed-

Grant County Farm Bureau To Hold Annual Meeting at Petersburg High

Directors To Be Elected and Reports Made at Session Thursday

PETERSBURG, W. Va., Dec. 2 — The annual meeting of the Grant County Farm Bureau will be held at the high school auditorium Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Reports of activities of the various groups during 1940 will be given and directors elected.

This year's meeting will be different from those in the past in that every farm group in the county will be invited and expected to participate in the program. All Farm Women's club members are urged to take part, and the ladies will have charge of the refreshments. Movies will be shown and a social hour will conclude the program.

Buy Fish Pond

The Grant County Rod and Gun Club has purchased of W. H. Munting, Maysville, a tract of land near Maysville which will be transformed into a fish pond in the spring.

Fish reared there, when they become a certain size, will be transferred from the pond into various streams in the county. Evers Turner, Petersburg, is president of the organization.

Petersburg Personals

B. F. Mitchell, lieutenant-governor of the Fifth division of Kiwanis in West Virginia; D. E. Cuppett Jr., president-elect of the Petersburg Kiwanis club; Paul A. Leatherman and Dr. Glenn Mooma are in Berkeley Springs today attending a Kiwanis school.

Grover Everly is moving his family today from the dwelling house of Clyde H. Shobe on Highland avenue to the dwelling house of Mrs. Anna M. Smith. Mr. Shobe will move his family from Fort Ashby tomorrow to the property vacated by Mr. Everly.

Mrs. Postle Sites has gone to Washington, where she will attend a restaurant association meeting. Russell Smith drove Mrs. Smith down.

Miss Zeita Werner, who has been in training at Potomac Valley hospital, Keyser, is ill at her home at Maysville.

Robert Higherberg has returned to his home at Sharpsburg, Md.

Mrs. Arthur Parker and family, Winchester, Va., are visiting relatives. Yesterday they attended the funeral of Mrs. Allen Foley.

Herbert McDonald, Yokima, Valmy, Wash., is visiting relatives at Maysville. He is accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Moling and Mrs. Nora Alexander and daughter.

Petersburg high school has just published its first school paper for the year under the name of Hilltop Echoes. Miss Grankie Everly is editor, and the paper is sponsored by the English department.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Clark will move from Martinsburg to rooms in the H. S. Judy home on North Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Shobe have moved from rooms in the Cora Ours property on Water street to the dwelling house of Mrs. Nora Godlove, Davis street.

News of Interest

From Cresaptown

CRESAPTON, Dec. 2 — Mrs. Denis Crabtree, Oldtown, spent Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. Francis Twiss.

Betty Smith, who works in Cumberland, spent the week-end at home with her family.

Misses Emma Stagg and Mary Stagg spent Sunday with Mrs. Delpha Varner, Seymour, W. Va.

Mrs. Parker Breddloe, and children spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Sarah Leisure, Cumberland.

Edward Cortius, Altoona, Pa., is spending several weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. Orrie Ravenscroft are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Iselmeier, New Concord, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Richardson announce the birth of a son Sunday at Allegany hospital.

James Kamauf and Charles Flanagan are spending a week at Deer Park.

Mr. and Mrs. LeMoine Bevier and family and John A. Bevier and son, Lebanon, Pa., spent Sunday here with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Grant and Mr. and Mrs. John Bevier.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stagg and family spent Sunday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Iser, Dawson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Stagg entertained Sunday with a birthday dinner in honor of their daughter, Sarah.

Mrs. Bruce Hudson is improving at Memorial hospital.

The Ladies Golden Rule class will meet Tuesday night in the social hall. Class sisters will be revealed and new ones drawn.

The Epworth League will meet Saturday night at the home of Pauline and Georgiana Shank.

The executive board of the Wom- men's Division of Christian Service will meet Wednesday night at the church at 7:30 p.m.

The Willing Workers class held its annual Christmas party Monday night at the home of Corrine Den- ston.

J. Igle has been confined to his bed because of a back injury suffered in a fall last Wednesday.

Elvin Arnold has gone to Wash- ington, where he has received em- physiol.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Philson and children, Beacon, N. Y., are guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Philson, Meyers avenue.

After a brief honeymoon in east-

Report Cards Discussed By Flintstone P-TA

PLINSTONE, Dec. 2 — The Flintstone Parent-Teacher Association held a study period at its monthly meeting Wednesday night, with the program in charge of Miss Margaret Sipple, head of the English department.

Report cards were the topic of discussion. Those taking part were Miss Florence Thompson, discussing the elementary report cards; Miss Louise Barnard intermediate; and James House high school. Miss Mary Morgan gave a summary of child study and Miss Mary Krum- pack reported on child development. The report cards were the topic of discussion. Those taking part were Miss Florence Thompson, discussing the elementary report cards; Miss Louise Barnard intermediate; and James House high school. Miss Mary Morgan gave a summary of child study and Miss Mary Krum- pack reported on child develop-

ment. The report cards were the topic of discussion. Those taking part were Miss Florence Thompson, discussing the elementary report cards; Miss Louise Barnard intermediate; and James House high school. Miss Mary Morgan gave a summary of child study and Miss Mary Krum- pack reported on child develop-

ment. The report cards were the topic of discussion. Those taking part were Miss Florence Thompson, discussing the elementary report cards; Miss Louise Barnard intermediate; and James House high school. Miss Mary Morgan gave a summary of child study and Miss Mary Krum- pack reported on child develop-

ment. The report cards were the topic of discussion. Those taking part were Miss Florence Thompson, discussing the elementary report cards; Miss Louise Barnard intermediate; and James House high school. Miss Mary Morgan gave a summary of child study and Miss Mary Krum- pack reported on child develop-

ment. The report cards were the topic of discussion. Those taking part were Miss Florence Thompson, discussing the elementary report cards; Miss Louise Barnard intermediate; and James House high school. Miss Mary Morgan gave a summary of child study and Miss Mary Krum- pack reported on child develop-

ment. The report cards were the topic of discussion. Those taking part were Miss Florence Thompson, discussing the elementary report cards; Miss Louise Barnard intermediate; and James House high school. Miss Mary Morgan gave a summary of child study and Miss Mary Krum- pack reported on child develop-

ment. The report cards were the topic of discussion. Those taking part were Miss Florence Thompson, discussing the elementary report cards; Miss Louise Barnard intermediate; and James House high school. Miss Mary Morgan gave a summary of child study and Miss Mary Krum- pack reported on child develop-

ment. The report cards were the topic of discussion. Those taking part were Miss Florence Thompson, discussing the elementary report cards; Miss Louise Barnard intermediate; and James House high school. Miss Mary Morgan gave a summary of child study and Miss Mary Krum- pack reported on child develop-

ment. The report cards were the topic of discussion. Those taking part were Miss Florence Thompson, discussing the elementary report cards; Miss Louise Barnard intermediate; and James House high school. Miss Mary Morgan gave a summary of child study and Miss Mary Krum- pack reported on child develop-

ment. The report cards were the topic of discussion. Those taking part were Miss Florence Thompson, discussing the elementary report cards; Miss Louise Barnard intermediate; and James House high school. Miss Mary Morgan gave a summary of child study and Miss Mary Krum- pack reported on child develop-

ment. The report cards were the topic of discussion. Those taking part were Miss Florence Thompson, discussing the elementary report cards; Miss Louise Barnard intermediate; and James House high school. Miss Mary Morgan gave a summary of child study and Miss Mary Krum- pack reported on child develop-

ment. The report cards were the topic of discussion. Those taking part were Miss Florence Thompson, discussing the elementary report cards; Miss Louise Barnard intermediate; and James House high school. Miss Mary Morgan gave a summary of child study and Miss Mary Krum- pack reported on child develop-

ment. The report cards were the topic of discussion. Those taking part were Miss Florence Thompson, discussing the elementary report cards; Miss Louise Barnard intermediate; and James House high school. Miss Mary Morgan gave a summary of child study and Miss Mary Krum- pack reported on child develop-

ment. The report cards were the topic of discussion. Those taking part were Miss Florence Thompson, discussing the elementary report cards; Miss Louise Barnard intermediate; and James House high school. Miss Mary Morgan gave a summary of child study and Miss Mary Krum- pack reported on child develop-

ment. The report cards were the topic of discussion. Those taking part were Miss Florence Thompson, discussing the elementary report cards; Miss Louise Barnard intermediate; and James House high school. Miss Mary Morgan gave a summary of child study and Miss Mary Krum- pack reported on child develop-

ment. The report cards were the topic of discussion. Those taking part were Miss Florence Thompson, discussing the elementary report cards; Miss Louise Barnard intermediate; and James House high school. Miss Mary Morgan gave a summary of child study and Miss Mary Krum- pack reported on child develop-

ment. The report cards were the topic of discussion. Those taking part were Miss Florence Thompson, discussing the elementary report cards; Miss Louise Barnard intermediate; and James House high school. Miss Mary Morgan gave a summary of child study and Miss Mary Krum- pack reported on child develop-

ment. The report cards were the topic of discussion. Those taking part were Miss Florence Thompson, discussing the elementary report cards; Miss Louise Barnard intermediate; and James House high school. Miss Mary Morgan gave a summary of child study and Miss Mary Krum- pack reported on child develop-

ment. The report cards were the topic of discussion. Those taking part were Miss Florence Thompson, discussing the elementary report cards; Miss Louise Barnard intermediate; and James House high school. Miss Mary Morgan gave a summary of child study and Miss Mary Krum- pack reported on child develop-

ment. The report cards were the topic of discussion. Those taking part were Miss Florence Thompson, discussing the elementary report cards; Miss Louise Barnard intermediate; and James House high school. Miss Mary Morgan gave a summary of child study and Miss Mary Krum- pack reported on child develop-

ment. The report cards were the topic of discussion. Those taking part were Miss Florence Thompson, discussing the elementary report cards; Miss Louise Barnard intermediate; and James House high school. Miss Mary Morgan gave a summary of child study and Miss Mary Krum- pack reported on child develop-

ment. The report cards were the topic of discussion. Those taking part were Miss Florence Thompson, discussing the elementary report cards; Miss Louise Barnard intermediate; and James House high school. Miss Mary Morgan gave a summary of child study and Miss Mary Krum- pack reported on child develop-

ment. The report cards were the topic of discussion. Those taking part were Miss Florence Thompson, discussing the elementary report cards; Miss Louise Barnard intermediate; and James House high school. Miss Mary Morgan gave a summary of child study and Miss Mary Krum- pack reported on child develop-

ment. The report cards were the topic of discussion. Those taking part were Miss Florence Thompson, discussing the elementary report cards; Miss Louise Barnard intermediate; and James House high school. Miss Mary Morgan gave a summary of child study and Miss Mary Krum- pack reported on child develop-

ment. The report cards were the topic of discussion. Those taking part were Miss Florence Thompson, discussing the elementary report cards; Miss Louise Barnard intermediate; and James House high school. Miss Mary Morgan gave a summary of child study and Miss Mary Krum- pack reported on child develop-

ment. The report cards were the topic of discussion. Those taking part were Miss Florence Thompson, discussing the elementary report cards; Miss Louise Barnard intermediate; and James House high school. Miss Mary Morgan gave a summary of child study and Miss Mary Krum- pack reported on child develop-

ment. The report cards were the topic of discussion. Those taking part were Miss Florence Thompson, discussing the elementary report cards; Miss Louise Barnard intermediate; and James House high school. Miss Mary Morgan gave a summary of child study and Miss Mary Krum- pack reported on child develop-

ment. The report cards were the topic of discussion. Those taking part were Miss Florence Thompson, discussing the elementary report cards; Miss Louise Barnard intermediate; and James House high school. Miss Mary Morgan gave a summary of child study and Miss Mary Krum- pack reported on child develop-

ment. The report cards were the topic of discussion. Those taking part were Miss Florence Thompson, discussing the elementary report cards; Miss Louise Barnard intermediate; and James House high school. Miss Mary Morgan gave a summary of child study and Miss Mary Krum- pack reported on child develop-

ment. The report cards were the topic of discussion. Those taking part were Miss Florence Thompson, discussing the elementary report cards; Miss Louise Barnard intermediate; and James House high school. Miss Mary Morgan gave a summary of child study and Miss Mary Krum- pack reported on child develop-

ment. The report cards were the topic of discussion. Those taking part were Miss Florence Thompson, discussing the elementary report cards; Miss Louise Barnard intermediate; and James House high school. Miss Mary Morgan gave a summary of child study and Miss Mary Krum- pack reported on child develop-

ment. The report cards were the topic of discussion. Those taking part were Miss Florence Thompson, discussing the elementary report cards; Miss Louise Barnard intermediate; and James House high school. Miss Mary Morgan gave a summary of child study and Miss Mary Krum- pack reported on child develop-

ment. The report cards were the topic of discussion. Those taking part were Miss Florence Thompson, discussing the elementary report cards; Miss Louise Barnard intermediate; and James House high school. Miss Mary Morgan gave a summary of child study and Miss Mary Krum- pack reported on child develop-

ment. The report cards were the topic of discussion. Those taking part were Miss Florence Thompson, discussing the elementary report cards; Miss Louise Barnard intermediate; and James House high school. Miss Mary Morgan gave a summary of child study and Miss Mary Krum- pack reported on child develop-

ment. The report cards were the topic of discussion. Those taking part were Miss Florence Thompson, discussing the elementary report cards; Miss Louise Barnard intermediate; and James House high school. Miss Mary Morgan gave a summary of child study and Miss Mary Krum- pack reported on child develop-

Stocks Close Irregular after Many Issues Gain at the Start

Fears of Corporation Tax Mirror of Markets Increases Cause Declines

By FREDERICK GARDNER

NEW YORK, Dec. 2 (AP)—An early trend in the stock market today flattened out as the session proceeded and at the last prices turned slightly irregular.

Bidding for steels at the start made the list look fairly good for a while but momentum soon faded along with quotations.

Transfers totalled 478,380 shares compared with 528,030 in the preceding full session.

Principal handicaps to the advance, brokers suggested, included thoughts of a jump in corporation taxes next year, the belief considerable year-end selling for income tax adjustments still had to be absorbed and the lack of information regarding the amount of unsold British-owned American securities overhanging the market.

War news did not seem particularly disturbing.

On the bullish side was the continuation of rosy business and industrial prospects.

Avgation stocks never did get going and the majority finished under water. Utilities did better than usual as it was realized some of these stocks had recently hit new 1940 lows and were selling on a substantial high-yield basis.

Retaining modest improvement were du Pont, Chrysler, North American, Consolidated Edison, Public Service of N. J., N. Y. General, Loew's, American Can, du Pont, Sears Roebuck, Great Northern Union Carbide and Texas Corp.

U. S. Steel ended at Saturday's final level and Bethlehem was down 1%. Losses were posted for Sante Fe, Westinghouse, Anaconda, U. S. Rubber, Douglas Aircraft, Boeing, United Aircraft Sperry, Eastman Kodak, Montgomery Ward and American Telephone.

Among scattered curb gainers were Master Electric, American Gas, Borne Scrymser, Bath Iron Works and Pittsburgh Plate Glass. Declines were registered for Cities Service, Electric Bond & Share, Bell Aircraft, Brewster Aero, Gulf Oil and Humble Oil. Volume here was around 120,000 shares against 127,000 last Friday.

New York Stocks

	Mon.	Tue.	Wed.	Thur.	Fri.	Sat.
Advances	281	304
Declines	254	167
Unchanged	295	162
Total issues	740	573
Total sales:	478,380
Treasury balance:	$1,093,214.4
842,46.

New York Produce

NEW YORK, Dec. 2 (AP)—Eggs: Apples—Dull. Bu. bas. U. S. 1s, Md. Pa. Va. W. Va. York 2½ in. min. 75-90, 2½ in. min. 90-100. Staymans 2½ in. min. 75-100, 2½ in. min. 100-25; Delicious 2½ in. min. best 140-60, poorer 110-25; Jonathans 2½ in. min. 85-100; Stark 2½ in. min. 65-75; Smokehouse 2½ in. min. 65-85, 2½ in. min. 85-100; Grimes 2½ in. min. 75-90; Romes 2½ in. min. 65-75; Hubbardton 2½ in. min. 65-85; Baldwin 2½ in. min. 65-90; Black Twigs 2½ in. min. 65-75; winter bananas 2½ in. min. 65-75.

Potatoes—Dull. Truck N. J. 100 lb. sacks cobblers U. S. 1s 90-95, few 100; Chippewas U. S. 1s 1.03-1.10, few 1.00. Md. Pa. 100 lb. sacks round whites and cobblers U. S. 1s 80-90, ungrd. 70-75. Rail Maine 100 lb. sacks Mountains and Katahdins U. S. is mostly 1.25. Idaho 100 lb. sacks Russet Burbanks U. S. 1s 1.65-2.00.

Sweet Potatoes—Dull. N. C. bl. bas. Goldens U. S. 1s 1.00-10. Jersey U. S. is 85-100, ungrd. 75-80; Puerto Ricans U. S. is 1.00-25; Nancy Halls U. S. is 90-100. Eastern Shore Maryland bu. bas. Goldens U. S. is 1.25-50; ungrd. 90-100; bu. bas. white vannas and Nancy Halls U. S. is 90-100. Eastern Shore Virginia bu. bas. Goldens U. S. is 1.00-25, ungrd. 85-90. Nearby ½ bl. hamper Goldens 50-60; Jerseys and Puerto Ricans 40-50; bu. bas. Goldens U. S. is 1.00-25.

Poultry—Steady on turkeys, dull on chickens. Chickens: Rocke 16-18, few fancy higher; crosses 15-17; reds 15-17; few higher; mixed colors 15-17. Heavy Rocks 19-19; mixed colors 16-18; under 4 lbs. 12-13; Leghorns 10-13. Roosters: Mixed colors 10-12; Leghorns 7-10. Ducks: Young Pekins 5 lbs. and over while 15-16; mixed colors 12-13. Guinea: Young over 2 lbs. mostly 23; Turkeys: Young hens 23-24; large toms 17-18, small 14-15.

- Position of Treasury
- WASHINGTON, Dec. 2 (AP)—The position of the treasury Nov. 29: Receipts $16,752,728.75. Expenditures $23,596,562.76. Net balance $183,961,791.45. Working balance included $1,093,214.46. Customs receipts for months $26,976,700.01. Receipts for fiscal year (July 1) $2,170,272,140.82. Expenditures $3,979,104,365.85. Excess or expenditures $1,808,832,225.03. Gross debt $44,266,992,004.08. Increase over previous day $777,134.28. Gold assets $21,799,432,842.23.

Chicago Grain Prices

CHICAGO, Dec. 2 (AP)—Cash wheat No. 5 Amer Durum 87½.

Corn No. 2 mixed 69½; No. 1 yellow 65½-66; No. 1 yellow old 68; No. 2 yellow 65½-71; No. 3 white 69½-71½; sample grade 56-61.

Oats No. 1 mixed heavy 40½; No. 2 mixed heavy 40; No. 1 white 41-41½; No. 2 white heavy 41-41½; No. 1 red heavy 40½; sample grade 36%.

Barley malting 51-64 nominal; feed 42-50 nominal.

Field seed per hundredweight nominal: timothy seed 3.75; alsike 9.00-11.00; fancy red top 7.50-8.00; red clover 8.00-10.00; sweet clover 3.50-4.00.

Pittsburgh Produce

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 2 (AP)—US and Pa. Dept. Agr.—Produce demand moderate.

Apples 10 cars, about steady. No. 1 bu. baskets and bu. crates, Pennsylvania Staymans 1.15-25, York Imperials 90-100, McIntosh 1.25, Bald-change to fancy heavier mediums 27½-30; mediums 26½-27; pullets 23½-24.

Butter (2 days receipts) 777,569; firm. Creamery: higher than 92 score and premium marks 34½-35½; 92 score, cash market 34½; 88-91 score 32½-34½; 84-87 score 30-32.

Bond Prices Mixed

NEW YORK, Dec. 2 (AP)—Buyers and sellers saw almost eye to eye in the bond market today and the result was a general mixture of small gains and losses at the close.

On average the industrials, utilities and foreign dollar groups rose a minor amount but gainers by no means had a monopoly. Sales of $6,279,600, par value, compared with $7,353,950 last Friday.

U. S. governments closed mixed in light trading.

Markets at a Glance

Stocks—Mixed; early rally fails to hold.

Bonds—Irrregular; some specialties move higher.

Corn—Improved; Cuban buying.

Metal—Steady; spot lead price reduced.

Wheat—Early gain lost; profit taking.

Corn—Weak; diminished demand.

Cattle—Steady to weak; short fed steers in liberal supply.

Hogs—10-20 up; broad demand.

Baltimore Cattle

BALTIMORE, Dec. 2 (AP)—Cattle 1375. Steer market moderately active, steady to shade higher, medium and good around 950-1200 lbs. 8.50-10.50. Well finished kinds lacking. Heifers scarce; cows and bulls around steady. Most fat cows common and medium dairy-breds 5.25-6.50. Few good weighty beef type 6.50-7.00. Canners and cutters 3.50-4.00. Sausage bulls largely 6.25-7.00; odd head to 7.25.

Calves 1000. Vealers fully steady with close last week. Good and choice 11.50-12.00; light culs down around 7.00.

Hogs 1900. Steady with Friday; good and choice 18.50-24.100 lbs 6.30-55; practical top 6.55; 160-240 lbs 6.15-40; 250-300 lbs 6.00-25; 120-130 lbs 5.65-90. Packing sows 5.10-60.

Sheep 1350. Fat lamb market around steady with close last week, around 10.25-30 for good and choice 11.50-12.00; light culs down around 7.00.

Hogs 1900. Steady with Friday;

good and choice 18.50-24.100 lbs 6.30-55; practical top 6.55; 160-240 lbs 6.15-40; 250-300 lbs 6.00-25; 120-130 lbs 5.65-90. Packing sows 5.10-60.

Sheep 1350. Fat lamb market around steady with close last week, around 10.25-30 for good and choice 11.50-12.00; light culs down around 7.00.

Hogs 1900. Steady with Friday;

good and choice 18.50-24.100 lbs 6.30-55; practical top 6.55; 160-240 lbs 6.15-40; 250-300 lbs 6.00-25; 120-130 lbs 5.65-90. Packing sows 5.10-60.

Sheep 1350. Fat lamb market around steady with close last week, around 10.25-30 for good and choice 11.50-12.00; light culs down around 7.00.

Hogs 1900. Steady with Friday;

good and choice 18.50-24.100 lbs 6.30-55; practical top 6.55; 160-240 lbs 6.15-40; 250-300 lbs 6.00-25; 120-130 lbs 5.65-90. Packing sows 5.10-60.

Sheep 1350. Fat lamb market around steady with close last week, around 10.25-30 for good and choice 11.50-12.00; light culs down around 7.00.

Hogs 1900. Steady with Friday;

good and choice 18.50-24.100 lbs 6.30-55; practical top 6.55; 160-240 lbs 6.15-40; 250-300 lbs 6.00-25; 120-130 lbs 5.65-90. Packing sows 5.10-60.

Sheep 1350. Fat lamb market around steady with close last week, around 10.25-30 for good and choice 11.50-12.00; light culs down around 7.00.

Hogs 1900. Steady with Friday;

good and choice 18.50-24.100 lbs 6.30-55; practical top 6.55; 160-240 lbs 6.15-40; 250-300 lbs 6.00-25; 120-130 lbs 5.65-90. Packing sows 5.10-60.

Sheep 1350. Fat lamb market around steady with close last week, around 10.25-30 for good and choice 11.50-12.00; light culs down around 7.00.

Hogs 1900. Steady with Friday;

good and choice 18.50-24.100 lbs 6.30-55; practical top 6.55; 160-240 lbs 6.15-40; 250-300 lbs 6.00-25; 120-130 lbs 5.65-90. Packing sows 5.10-60.

Sheep 1350. Fat lamb market around steady with close last week, around 10.25-30 for good and choice 11.50-12.00; light culs down around 7.00.

Hogs 1900. Steady with Friday;

good and choice 18.50-24.100 lbs 6.30-55; practical top 6.55; 160-240 lbs 6.15-40; 250-300 lbs 6.00-25; 120-130 lbs 5.65-90. Packing sows 5.10-60.

Sheep 1350. Fat lamb market around steady with close last week, around 10.25-30 for good and choice 11.50-12.00; light culs down around 7.00.

Hogs 1900. Steady with Friday;

good and choice 18.50-24.100 lbs 6.30-55; practical top 6.55; 160-240 lbs 6.15-40; 250-300 lbs 6.00-25; 120-130 lbs 5.65-90. Packing sows 5.10-60.

Sheep 1350. Fat lamb market around steady with close last week, around 10.25-30 for good and choice 11.50-12.00; light culs down around 7.00.

Hogs 1900. Steady with Friday;

good and choice 18.50-24.100 lbs 6.30-55; practical top 6.55; 160-240 lbs 6.15-40; 250-300 lbs 6.00-25; 120-130 lbs 5.65-90. Packing sows 5.10-60.

Sheep 1350. Fat lamb market around steady with close last week, around 10.25-30 for good and choice 11.50-12.00; light culs down around 7.00.

Hogs 1900. Steady with Friday;

good and choice 18.50-24.100 lbs 6.30-55; practical top 6.55; 160-240 lbs 6.15-40; 250-300 lbs 6.00-25; 120-130 lbs 5.65-90. Packing sows 5.10-60.

Sheep 1350. Fat lamb market around steady with close last week, around 10.25-30 for good and choice 11.50-12.00; light culs down around 7.00.

Hogs 1900. Steady with Friday;

good and choice 18.50-24.100 lbs 6.30-55; practical top 6.55; 160-240 lbs 6.15-40; 250-300 lbs 6.00-25; 120-130 lbs

Baseball Bigwigs Wonder About Czar Landis

Commissioner To Address Meeting Of Minor Leagues

Accepts Invitation and Promises To Make 'Few Observations'

May Drop "Bombshell" -- Major Managers in Trade Huddles

By JUDSON BAILEY

ATLANTA, Dec. 2 (AP)—Kenesaw Mountain Landis, baseball's shaggy white-haired czar, is going to make one of his rare public appearances during the minor league convention and the surprised bigwigs of the sport are wondering whether his talk will be social or business.

Earl Mann, president of the Atlanta Club which is host to the 39th annual meeting of the minors, disclosed today that the fiery-eyed commissioner had accepted an invitation to address the banquet Thursday night.

In his telegraphic response Landis simply said he would be glad to make "a few observations."

Not since the convention was held in Columbus, O., eight years ago has the judge appeared before the little fellows of the national pastime he rules.

To insist on New Pact His talk at Columbus was comparatively docile, impressing caution upon the club owners, but he precipitated one of baseball's most explosive off the field episodes some years before that by exorcising Branch Rickey of the St. Louis Cardinals in a speech at the minor's convention in Montreal.

A committee of the minors now is engaged in preparing a revised major-minor league agreement to replace the present pact which expires a year from now month.

Conn is one fighter I'd like to entertain at the first chance," Max says. "And I also think it is a fight that ever saw an East-West contest.

Mike Jacobs says he and Conn are both agreeable at any date Max may announce.

Baer won't have to look for Conn," Jacobs says. "Billy will be waiting for him."

This is a prospect that at least has started a number of early arguments. We put the matter up to eight fight experts, whose vote was evenly divided.

The Conn supporters figured that Bill's far greater speed and boxing skill would be Max into a number of knots; that Baer would be lucky to land punch. The Baer contingent took the angle that Baer's weight margin of forty-six pounds—221 to 175—would be entirely too much.

Also that Baer, knowing Conn is no smashing hitter, would be in a different mood, that he would be willing to wade in to take a few in order to land.

This latter idea means a good deal. Baer would be badly cut down; but he is still a terrific hitter.

It might also interest you to know, Max says, "that I am keeping in shape, and will continue to do the same straight through. You won't have to worry about that part of it."

At The Sugar Bowl

The Sportlight by GRANTLAND RICE

(Released by North American Newspaper Alliance)

NEW YORK, Dec. 2—Actor Max Baer sends in word that he would be much pleased to meet Billy Conn as soon as the Baer show ends its run.

Conn is one fighter I'd like to entertain at the first chance," Max says. "And I also think it is a fight that ever saw an East-West contest.

Snavey expects to face a strong Southern team, stronger than any he has yet faced in the cradle of the confederacy.

Baer won't have to look for Conn," Jacobs says. "Billy will be waiting for him."

This is a prospect that at least has started a number of early arguments. We put the matter up to eight fight experts, whose vote was evenly divided.

The Conn supporters figured that Bill's far greater speed and boxing skill would be Max into a number of knots; that Baer would be lucky to land punch. The Baer contingent took the angle that Baer's weight margin of forty-six pounds—221 to 175—would be entirely too much.

Also that Baer, knowing Conn is no smashing hitter, would be in a different mood, that he would be willing to wade in to take a few in order to land.

This latter idea means a good deal. Baer would be badly cut down; but he is still a terrific hitter.

It might also interest you to know, Max says, "that I am keeping in shape, and will continue to do the same straight through. You won't have to worry about that part of it."

At The Sugar Bowl

The Sugar Bowl will be no second attraction this Winter, no matter what the other bowls may get. Boston College and Tennessee bring together not only two of the best teams, but also two of the better scoring teams. Both have powerful lines and both have unusually good backs, with Fox and O'Rourke among the country's best.

Major leaguers flocked to the scene today and held huddles in lobby corners, restaurants and rooms.

Manager Leo Durocher of the Brooklyn Dodgers and Manager Frank Frisch of the Pittsburgh Pirates held a lengthy conference and Manager Casey Stengel of the Boston Bees buttonholed President Bill Brensinger of the Pirates behind a big pillar.

Owner Sam Breadon and Business Manager Rickey of the Cardinals arrived by plane as another signal that the swapping season was officially open.

Warren Giles, general manager of the world champion Cincinnati Reds, mingled with the crowd in the lobby but asserted he had no trades in mind and didn't think other clubs would be willing to give him additional strength.

Manager Del Baker of Detroit's American League champs held court sitting on the lobby steps and had a long talk with his new coach, Steve O'Neill.

Joe McCarthy of the New York Yankees was expected tomorrow and there were reports he would try to lay the groundwork for some trading, although any deals by the defeated Bronx Bombers probably would not be completed until the major league sessions at Chicago next week, when President Ed Barrow will be on hand.

Get Rockne Memorial

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Dec. 2 (AP)—Minnesota's Gophers, the undefeated and untied western conference champions, were ranked the nation's No. 1 team today in the 1940 Dickinson football ratings issued by Dr. Frank G. Dickinson of the University of Illinois.

Minnesota thus received permanent possession of the Rockne trophy, having won it by its Dickinson ratings in 1934, 1936 and this year. Dr. Dickinson, who said this season's rating was his last, declared that the Gophers also had won permanent possession of the trophy on a best 10-year record basis.

Michigan, though defeated by Minnesota 7-6, was placed second because of the calibre of its schedule. One-sided victories over such teams as Florida, North Carolina State, L.S.U., Mississippi and Alabama, with an Auburn tie, round out one of the best campaigns of the year.

In Johnson and Erol, Mississippi State came through on schedule.

One fast-moving back and the other is a fine end. They will give anybody trouble in Miami on New Year's Day.

Memor of League

Michigan, though defeated by Minnesota 7-6, was placed second because of the calibre of its schedule. One-sided victories over such teams as Florida, North Carolina State, L.S.U., Mississippi and Alabama, with an Auburn tie, round out one of the best campaigns of the year.

Both Dr. Dickinson and Dr. Frank G. Dickinson of the University of Illinois said that the Gophers also had won permanent possession of the trophy on a best 10-year record basis.

Southern Methodist was placed eighth, but Dr. Dickinson said that if the Mustangs lose to Rice next Saturday, Boston College would take over the 11th position. Southern Methodist would drop from the list and Texas, Nebraska and Northwestern would be moved up a notch.

The ratings:

W L T Pts.

Minnesota 7 0 0 22.10

Michigan 9 0 0 33.81

Tennessee 10 0 0 25.70

Texas & M. 1 1 1 24.78

Mississippi State 9 0 1 24.26

Georgia Methodist 2 1 1 23.82

Texas A. & M. 1 1 1 23.12

Northwestern 8 1 0 22.51

Kirwan 108 106 105 388

Peltier 151 122 141 426

Decemter 137 112 179 428

Davis 122 99 156 387

D'Amato 100 137 157 387

Blind 95 98 74 387

Totals 609 662 737 3211

Remarks—Indiana won two.

TIGERS

Kirwan 108 106 105 388

Lannon 151 120 117 426

Blind 231 80 91 402

Decemter 141 166 143 426

Mackwood 93 100 137 387

Bradfield 91 96 187

Totals 788 737 801 3207

Remarks—Indiana won two.

INDIANS

Holt 113 139 148 400

McMahon 130 105 127 387

Jewell 173 145 119 427

Warnick 132 174 152 387

Snavey 91 111 106 387

Totals 647 654 643 1943

Remarks—Sr. Brewers won three.

CROWNS

Sills 96 109 127 322

Bind 102 120 121 387

Fradicks 87 111 134 322

Dahl 160 140 164 464

Totals 674 730 800 2222

Remarks—Crowns won two.

CASES

Ritter 120 138 156 387

Rider 128 116 125 387

Walsh 122 103 89 314

Hager 102 89 127 322

Stasiek 120 127 125 387

Totals 603 728 766 2294

Remarks—Cases won three.

BOTTLES

Robinson 122 156 403

Witt 128 116 125 387

Walsh 122 103 89 314

Hager 102 89 127 322

Stasiek 120 127 125 387

Totals 603 728 766 2294

Remarks—Bottles won three.

CROWN

Sills 109 127 322

Bind 102 120 121 387

Fradicks 87 111 134 322

Dahl 160 140 164 464

Totals 674 730 800 2222

Remarks—Crown won two.

BUNGS

Damm 112 106 115 327

Holmes 118 111 139 386

Lease 102 106 122 387

Bob Aman 96 104 120 387

Pradicks 91 103 122 387

Morrissey 149 173 121 443

Brookesh 187 207 137 322

Totals 603 728 766 2294

Remarks—Bungs won three.

CELLARS

Barker 62 86 87 213

F. Pradicks 142 137 141 387

Neiman 73 94 71 238

L. Hartung 120 126 128 387

Bradford 131 147 162 400

Totals 512 597 581 1619

Remarks—Cellars won three.

BARRELS

Ritter 120 138 148 387

Rider 108 142 67 317

Hager 108 89 93 289

Bind 126 122 125 387

Pradicks 120 122 125 387

Dill 102 126 128 387

Totals 603 611 619 1927

Minnesota Voted No. 1 Grid Team Of Year

Stanford Ranked Second by Virtue Sensational Rise

From the PRESS Box
Chicago Bears Expected To Trim Redskins Sunday
Released by North American Newspaper Alliance

Texas Aggies Drop from Runner-Up Spot To Sixth Place

Michigan Fourth as Poll Proves Uncertainty of Grid Wars

NEW YORK, Dec. 2 (AP)—Minnesota's Golden Gophers were voted the No. 1 college football team of 1940 today in the final Associated Press ranking of the season.

At the top of the list for the three preceding weeks, the western conference champions were named first by 65 and second by 55 of the 133 experts throughout the country who took part in the deciding vote. In all the Gophers polled 1,244 points as they took the place won a year ago by Texas A. & M.

The Aggies, who had been runners-up, dropped down to sixth place as a result of their 7-0 defeat by Texas, their only loss of the year. Second place went to Stanford, the west's unbeaten and untied Rose Bowl candidate; third to Michigan, beaten only by Minnesota; fourth to Tennessee, which finished second in 1939 and for the third straight year completed its regular schedule without loss or tie; and fifth to Boston College, No. 1 eastern team which will play Tennessee in the New Orleans Sugar Bowl on New Year's day.

The last four places went to Nebraska's Big Six champions, another team whipped only by Minnesota and now booked to play Stanford in the Rose Bowl; Northwestern, which lost to Minnesota and Michigan; unbeaten but once-tied Mississippi State, the South-Eastern Conference entry in Miami's Orange Bowl, and Washington, pre-season favorite but end-of-season runner-up in the coast conference race.

Toughest Schedule

Minnesota gained its rank by coming through probably the season's toughest schedule. The Gophers opened by licking Washington, the Huskies afterward losing only to Stanford; handed Nebraska and them Michigan their only trimmings of the season, and also knocked off Ohio State, Iowa, Northwestern, and Wisconsin.

A comparison of the 1939 and 1940 first tens give ample proof of the roller-coaster fluctuations of football fortune. Only Texas A. & M. and Tennessee survive of last year's list.

The most remarkable rise, of course, was Stanford's. Good enough this year to be ranked first by 44 voters on the final ballots, the Indians a year ago were in the Coast Conference cellar. That spot for 1940 went to UCLA, which only 12 months ago was rated seventh in the season's-end standings.

The final standing (points figured on 10-9-8-7-6, etc., basis, first-place votes in parentheses):

1—Minnesota	124
2—Stanford	112
3—Michigan	94
4—Tennessee	85
5—Boston College	70
6—Texas A. & M.	72
7—Nebraska	54
8—Northwestern	32
9—Mississippi State	11
10—Washington	233
11—UCLA	210
Second "string": 11—Santa Clara, 198½; 12—Georgia Tech, 132½; 13—Penn, 87½; 14—Cornell, 30½; 15—Michigan State, 28½; 16—Southern Methodist, 9½; 17—Hardin-Simmons, 9; 18—Duke, 8; 19—Lafayette, 4.

Nebraska Selection For Rose Bowl Meets With Favor on Coast

PASADENA, Calif., Dec. 2 (AP)—Football forces of the University of Nebraska will find a warm reception when the Cornhuskers move in to play Stanford in the Rose Bowl.

In contrast to certain previous years, when fans and football writers minded no words in expressing displeasure over a selection, the choice of Nebraska apparently was a popular one.

There was evidence of genuine regret in many places because Texas A. & M. missed out, but supporters of the Lone Star State aggregation accepted the Nebraska bid with good grace.

The hopes for the Texas team took a nose dive after the loss by the Aggies to Texas last week, because it had been known from the start that Stanford preferred inviting a team from some section of the country other than the South or Southwest.

Thus, the rock 'em, sock 'em Cadets had two strikes on them at the outset, and the Texas Longhorns pitched the third. That single Texas touchdown was worth $100,000 to Nebraska.

This will be the first time a midwest team has been in the Rose Bowl since Notre Dame whopped Stanford in 1925; and the first time Nebraska, or a Big Six champion, has ever been in the big game.

"I think the bid to Nebraska is a fine choice. It makes the Rose Bowl a more representative attraction," said Bob Foote, Pasadena sports editor, who has seen almost every Rose Bowl game since 1916. Other west coast sports editors concurred.

In the past twelve years, twice as much new oil has been discovered as produced.

Abilene, Texas, Dec. 22 (AP)—Hardin-Simmons university officials said today they had been advised by Chairman Will M. Preston of the Orange Bowl at Miami that Hardin-Simmons was under "serious consideration" for the post-season game with Mississippi State.

A decision will be made at a meeting tomorrow, Preston said.

The lawyer's wife and son de-

Duke University, with four men, and the University of North Carolina, with three, took the lead on the 1940 Laramie in the backfield. North Carolina placed tackle and Lach in the backfield. North Carolina placed tackle and Lach in the backfield. The team was completed and Timmons in the backfield. The team was completed and Fronczek of Richmond university at tackle and Fronczek of Richmond university at tackle and Galovich of Wake Forest in the backfield.

Associated Press all-Southern Conference team. Duke guard. Clemson college came next with Blalock at end

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

placed Barnett at center, Winterson at guard, Ruffa at

BLONDIE

BRICK BRADFORD—Seeks the Diamond Doll

MUGGS AND SKEETER

BIG SISTER

"BARNEY GOOGLE AND SNUFFY SMITH"

LITTLE ANNIE ROONEY

ETTA KETT

"Did you have to send ALL my suits to the cleaners? I feel like a fool walking around in this outfit!"

JASPER

"They've gone to swiping the designs from the government dams!"

DAILY CROSSWORD

SIXTH OF DAM
1. Prison	16. Liberated	37. Constellation
2. Refund	17. Monkey	38. Latvian
10. Asian	18. Cover	39. coin
Country	19. Fuss	40. A tree
12. Choice part	22. Short for	Thomas	45. Period of
13. Waits for	23. Single unit		46. Household
14. Wise men	24. A suffix		47. pet
15. Hotel	25. A State		48. Sleeveless
17. Thick slice	27. Longfellow		garment
21. Negative reply	31. Poem by		49. Male sheep
22. Digit	32. Chance		50. Viper
25. Opera by Verdi	33. Trouble		51. Mire
26. Sings	34. Crooked		52. One who excels
29. Image	35. Turkish
30. Obscure
32. Pacific island
35. Aim
39. Aviator
40. Vegetable
41. Layer of cloth
42. Pronoun
43. Tidy
44. Append
46. Unit of weight
50. With might
53. Disconcert
55. A flower
57. City in Florida
58. Profound
DOWN
1. Tomcat
2. Cuckoo
3. Queer
4. Falsehood
5. Revived
6. Guido's highest note
7. A swine
8. Devoured
9. Affirmative reply
11. Kind of tree

Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc. 12-3

Start Selling Used Articles For Usable Christmas Cash Now!

Funeral Notice

ALLEN—Joseph E. age 83, died at his home, Fort Ashby, W. Va., Sunday, December 1. His body will be removed to the home where friends will be received. Funeral services Wednesday, 3 P.M., Presbyterian Church, Fort Ashby. Rev. George E. Hinsdale, pastor. Interment in the Fort Ashby Cemetery. Arrangements by Wolford Funeral Service. 12-2-11-T-N WELSH—John Henry, aged 82, of 117 Offutt street, died Sunday, December 1. Funeral services will be held Tuesday, December 4, at 2:30 P.M. in the Mt. Pleasant Methodist church, Wiley Ford, W. Va., with the Rev. Mr. Hartman pastor, officiating. Interment in church cemetery. Arrangements by Zeigler Funeral Service, Hyndman, Pa.

12-2-11-T-N

Card of Thanks

We take this means of expressing our sincere appreciation to our friends and neighbors who were so kind to us during our recent bereavement. We thank our father and friend, Arthur Nesbit, we also wish to thank those who sent floral offerings and joined us for the funeral. MRS. MARY W. HARRISON. MRS. GRACE NEBBITT. MASTER JOHN R. NEBBITT. 12-2-11-T-N

2—Automotive

41'—Best Buick Yet and Best Trade-Ins

FOR A BETTER DEAL, BETTER DEAL AT HEISKELL MOTOR SALES Frostburg. Phone 79.

1939 Buick 4-Door Sedan, Radio and Heater $745

1939 Buick 2-Door Sedan $695

1939 Packard Coupe $675

1939 Pontiac 2-Door Touring Sedan $595

1938 Oldsmobile Coupe $525

1937 Buick 4-Door Touring Sedan $495

1937 Pontiac 4-Door Touring Sedan $475

1936 Oldsmobile 4-Door Touring Sedan $325

1936 Dodge 4-Door Touring Sedan $265

1936 Buick 4-Door Touring Sedan $395

THOMPSON BUICK CORP. 429 N. Mechanic St. Phone 1470

BUICK, 1939, like new, 2-door sedan, trunk, 40 series, new safety tires, heater, $600. Terms to suit. Owner leaving city. Call Room 536, Fort Cumberland Hotel, after 5 p.m. 12-2-31-T

1934 FORD TRUCK, 1½ ton, short wheel base, new rings, good condition, real buy $125. Apply 6 Creasap St. 12-3-1-T

1933 and 1934 FORD, 1½ ton, all steel panel. Box 941-A, % Times-News. 12-3-1-W

EDANS—1933 7-passenger Buick, 1936 Plymouth, 1936 Buick, 1934 Pontiac convertible. Van Voorhis, Hyndman. 11-15-31-T

CHRYSLER - PLYMOUTH. Oscar Gurley, George and Harrison Sts. Phone 1852. 7-30-tf

See "Dave" or "Art" at RELIABLE MOTORS CO. For a Better User Car

USED CARS ST. GEORGE MOTOR CO.

Franz Oldsmobile 163 Bedford St. Phone 1994

EILER Chevrolet, Inc. 209 N. Mechanic St. Phone 143 Open Evenings

Fort Cumberland Motors Packard Cars & White Trucks 661 Frederick St. Phone 2665

'41—Best Buick Yet THOMPSON BUICK CORPORATION 409 N. Mechanic St. Phone 1476

Taylor Motor Co. THE BEST IN USED CARS OPEN EVENINGS 517 N. Mechanic St. Phone 365

STEINLA MOTOR AND TRANSPORTATION COMPANY, INC. HUDSON GRAHAM INTERNATIONAL 131 N. Mechanic St. Phone 2550

WE PAY CASH FOR LATE MODEL USED CARS

ELCAR SALES Opp. New Post Office. Phone 844

SPOERL'S GARAGE, Inc. 51 N. George St. Since 1898 Phone 307

Glisans' Garage Distributor Dodge and Plymouth Cars

NASH

1938 Chevrolet 4 Door Sedan...$460

1937 Oldsmobile Coach $375

1937 Nash 4 Door Sedan $465

1935 Chevrolet Sedan $255

1935 Nash Sedan $235

1938 Hudson Coupe $395

1936 Nash Sedan $345

1939 Nash 6 Coupe $625

Lots of "Go to Work Cars"

Have You Tried Our Service?

2—Automotive

41'—Best

Buick

Yet and Best Trade-Ins

FOR A BETTER DEAL, BETTER DEAL AT HEISKELL MOTOR SALES Frostburg. Phone 79.

1939 Buick 4-Door Sedan, Radio and Heater $745

1939 Buick 2-Door Sedan $695

1939 Packard Coupe $675

1939 Pontiac 2-Door Touring Sedan $595

1938 Oldsmobile Coupe $525

1937 Buick 4-Door Touring Sedan $495

1937 Pontiac 4-Door Touring Sedan $475

1936 Oldsmobile 4-Door Touring Sedan $325

1936 Dodge 4-Door Touring Sedan $265

1936 Buick 4-Door Touring Sedan $395

THOMPSON BUICK CORP. 429 N. Mechanic St. Phone 1470

BUICK, 1939, like new, 2-door sedan, trunk, 40 series, new safety tires, heater, $600. Terms to suit. Owner leaving city. Call Room 536, Fort Cumberland Hotel, after 5 p.m. 12-2-31-T

1934 FORD TRUCK, 1½ ton, short wheel base, new rings, good condition, real buy $125. Apply 6 Creasap St. 12-3-1-T

1933 and 1934 FORD, 1½ ton, all steel panel. Box 941-A, % Times-News. 12-3-1-W

EDANS—1933 7-passenger Buick, 1936 Plymouth, 1936 Buick, 1934 Pontiac convertible. Van Voorhis, Hyndman. 11-15-31-T

CHRYSLER - PLYMOUTH. Oscar Gurley, George and Harrison Sts. Phone 1852. 7-30-tf

See "Dave" or "Art" at RELIABLE MOTORS CO. For a Better User Car

USED CARS ST. GEORGE MOTOR CO.

Franz Oldsmobile 163 Bedford St. Phone 1994

EILER Chevrolet, Inc. 209 N. Mechanic St. Phone 143 Open Evenings

Fort Cumberland Motors Packard Cars & White Trucks 661 Frederick St. Phone 2665

'41—Best Buick Yet THOMPSON BUICK CORPORATION 409 N. Mechanic St. Phone 1476

Taylor Motor Co. THE BEST IN USED CARS OPEN EVENINGS 517 N. Mechanic St. Phone 365

STEINLA MOTOR AND TRANSPORTATION COMPANY, INC. HUDSON GRAHAM INTERNATIONAL 131 N. Mechanic St. Phone 2550

WE PAY CASH FOR LATE MODEL USED CARS

ELCAR SALES Opp. New Post Office. Phone 844

SPOERL'S GARAGE, Inc. 51 N. George St. Since 1898 Phone 307

Glisans' Garage Distributor Dodge and Plymouth Cars

NASH

1938 Chevrolet 4 Door Sedan...$460

1937 Oldsmobile Coach $375

1937 Nash 4 Door Sedan $465

1935 Chevrolet Sedan $255

1935 Nash Sedan $235

1938 Hudson Coupe $395

1936 Nash Sedan $345

1939 Nash 6 Coupe $625

Lots of "Go to Work Cars"

Have You Tried Our Service?

2—Automotive

41'—Best

Buick

Yet and Best Trade-Ins

FOR A BETTER DEAL, BETTER DEAL AT HEISKELL MOTOR SALES Frostburg. Phone 79.

1939 Buick 4-Door Sedan, Radio and Heater $745

1939 Buick 2-Door Sedan $695

1939 Packard Coupe $675

1939 Pontiac 2-Door Touring Sedan $595

1938 Oldsmobile Sales — Collins' Garage, Studebaker, Diamond "T" Sales, 125 S. Mechanic. Phone 1542. 2-29-11-T

USED CARS, Green Chevrolet, Frostburg. 11-29-31-T

USED CARS at Cumberland's Lowest Prices. M.G.K. Motor Co. 2-26-11-T

OLDSMOBILE Sales and Service, St. Cloud Motor, Phone 14, Frostburg. 2-16-11-T

FOR A BETTER DEAL, BETTER DEAL AT HEISKELL MOTOR SALES Frostburg. Phone 79.

1939 Buick 4-Door Sedan, Radio and Heater $745

1939 Buick 2-Door Sedan $695

1939 Packard Coupe $675

1939 Pontiac 2-Door Touring Sedan $595

1938 Oldsmobile Coupe $525

1937 Buick 4-Door Touring Sedan $495

1937 Pontiac 4-Door Touring Sedan $475

1936 Oldsmobile 4-Door Touring Sedan $325

1936 Dodge 4-Door Touring Sedan $265

1936 Buick 4-Door Touring Sedan $395

THOMPSON BUICK CORP. 429 N. Mechanic St. Phone 1470

BUICK, 1939, like new, 2-door sedan, trunk, 40 series, new safety tires, heater, $600. Terms to suit. Owner leaving city. Call Room 536, Fort Cumberland Hotel, after 5 p.m. 12-2-31-T

1934 FORD TRUCK, 1½ ton, short wheel base, new rings, good condition, real buy $125. Apply 6 Creasap St. 12-3-1-T

1933 and 1934 FORD, 1½ ton, all steel panel. Box 941-A, % Times-News. 12-3-1-W

EDANS—1933 7-passenger Buick, 1936 Plymouth, 1936 Buick, 1934 Pontiac convertible. Van Voorhis, Hyndman. 11-15-31-T

CHRYSLER - PLYMOUTH. Oscar Gurley, George and Harrison Sts. Phone 1852. 7-30-tf

See "Dave" or "Art" at RELIABLE MOTORS CO. For a Better User Car

USED CARS ST. GEORGE MOTOR CO.

Franz Oldsmobile 163 Bedford St. Phone 1994

EILER Chevrolet, Inc. 209 N. Mechanic St. Phone 143 Open Evenings

Fort Cumberland Motors Packard Cars & White Trucks 661 Frederick St. Phone 2665

'41—Best Buick Yet THOMPSON BUICK CORPORATION 409 N. Mechanic St. Phone 1476

Taylor Motor Co. THE BEST IN USED CARS OPEN EVENINGS 517 N. Mechanic St. Phone 365

STEINLA MOTOR AND TRANSPORTATION COMPANY, INC. HUDSON GRAHAM INTERNATIONAL 131 N. Mechanic St. Phone 2550

WE PAY CASH FOR LATE MODEL USED CARS

ELCAR SALES Opp. New Post Office. Phone 844

SPOERL'S GARAGE, Inc. 51 N. George St. Since 1898 Phone 307

Glisans' Garage Distributor Dodge and Plymouth Cars

NASH

1938 Chevrolet 4 Door Sedan...$460

1937 Oldsmobile Coach $375

1937 Nash 4 Door Sedan $465

1

Extensive Improvements Are Being Made Here by C&P Telephone Company

Expenditure of $59,000 Covers Central Office Equipment and New Underground Cable

Mother of Eleven Children Dies Near Flintstone

Long Illness Is Fatal to Mrs. Matilda Agnes Wilson, 71

Mrs. Matilda Agnes Wilson, 71, widow of Argyle T. Wilson, died yesterday afternoon at her home near Flintstone, following a lingering illness.

Cable-splicing crews, working in three shifts, twenty-four hours a day, will expedite the work in the downtown business section so as to reduce to a minimum any traffic inconvenience that might be caused by opening and working in manholes.

The overall job will be done as rapidly as possible with completion scheduled for September 1, 1941, Barrow said.

The local manager explained that the cable being placed underground in the Baltimore and Centre streets section carries 4,242 separate wires, which is the largest cable constructed for use in the telephone business.

This plant expansion will affect practically all sections of Cumberland and is due to the rapid growth in the telephone development which has taken place in recent years.

For example, the total telephones served by the Cumberland exchange in 1935 was 6,199, whereas to day there are 8,275.

Barrow stated that at the present time 38.2 per cent of the Cumberland families have telephone service.

Mother of Local Man Dies in Hospital

Mrs. Mary Werner Steinla, 85, widow of Jacob Steinla of Westport, died yesterday afternoon at Memorial hospital where she was admitted Nov. 26.

Mrs. Steinla was a native of Pines, Md., and a member of the Reformed church of Poconos, Pa. Her husband died April, 1925, at the age of 74.

A son, Ervin Steinla, is president of the Steinla Motor and Transportation Company, Inc., and owner of Steinla's service station, this city.

Surviving are four other sons, William, Harvey and Elmer Steinla, of Frostburg, and Fred Steinla, of Avilton, Md.; four daughters,

(Continued on Page 8, Col. 2)

Baltimore Street To Be Decorated

Ten Different Schemes Are Outlined in 166 Page Report of Engineers

The report from Col. R. S. Thomas, district United States Army engineer, on the Cumberland Flood Control Project was analyzed last night by the sub committee of the general flood committee at the home of F. T. Small in the Dingle.

Embodying ten different flood protection schemes exclusive of the Kimble plan on which an are based, the report includes a definite project formulated by Col. Thomas and his engineers as authorized by the act of Congress June 22, 1936, better known as the Flood Control Act.

Comprehensive Report

The remarkably comprehensive report by expert hydraulic engineers was prepared in the last eighteen months. Preparing the various plans embodied in the report has cost the Federal government approximately $100,000.

The report consists of four different items. They are:

—166 closely typewritten pages with numerous photographs including airplane views, drawings and maps.

—A scientific report with an appendix basis for design of 116 pages.

—Drawings, including plates one

(Continued on Page 8, Col. 1)

BIBLE CLASS WILL HOLD MEMORIAL FOR F. C. HENDRICKSON

Memorial services will be held Sunday morning at the Central Y. M. C. A. by the Duke Memorial Bible Class for the late Finley C. Hendrickson, who taught the class for twenty-seven years.

Earle N. Knott is in charge of arrangements for the Memorial service. He announced yesterday that Judge William A. Huston will deliver the principal address. Other features of the program will include music by the class orchestra directed by Lloyd Rawlings and Mrs. Robert LeRoy Critchfield will sing.

Sunday, members of what has been known for many years as the Duke Memorial Bible Class, voted unanimously to have the name of the class changed to the Duke-Hendrickson Memorial Bible Class in recognition of the fine service Mr. Hendrickson rendered the class.

The new name will be effective next Sunday morning.

The class was organized by Dr. Edgar T. Duke who was also its first teacher. He was succeeded by Mr. Hendrickson. When Mr. Hendrickson completed a quarter of a century as teacher of the class there was public recognition of the anniversary.

Mr. Hendrickson died November 23.

Local News

In Page Eight

Local Man Is Named To Succeed Dennis McGraw of Lonaconing

Promotion of Robert M. King of South Lee street, to the post of supervisor of the George's Creek section of the Maryland Employment Service, was announced yesterday by Fred Z. Hetzel, manager of the Cumberland office.

King succeeds Dennis McGraw, of Lonaconing, who has gone to Washington, D. C., to accept a position in the Internal Revenue Department.

McGraw has been employed by the service since 1937 taking unemployment claims in Frostburg, Savage, Lonaconing and Westport.

Printers Exhibit Is Featured At Public Library

Displays by Cumberland Craftsmen Highlight of Remarkable Show

Two technical exhibits prepared by the Weatherholt Engraving Company and Cecil Grimsaw, Times & Alleganian Company Linotype machinist, are individual features of the comprehensive display now being shown at the Public Library by Cumberland Typographical Union, No. 244.

"One of the best exhibits we have had in years," was the verdict of Librarian Mary G. Walsh in commenting on the display which describes the various processes in the publishing business from the time the spruce log is felled in the north until the newspaper hits the streets to be hawked by the newsboys.

Union Sponsors Exhibits

The exhibit is a part of the program sponsored by the Typographical Union this week commemorating the five-hundredth anniversary of movable type, the fifty anniversary of Local 244, and the sixteenth anniversary of the Sunday Cumberland Times.

The central theme of the elaborate display includes every step that is necessary to put a newspaper on the street. The manufacture of paper from wood pulp is demonstrated in a series of steps.

The preparation of newspaper copy including exhibits of page forms, mats and press plates are demonstrated in a clear and understandable manner.

The same is true in the elaborate photo-engraving exhibit prepared by the Weatherholt Engraving Company. Each step in making a plate is graphically portrayed from the process camera to the time the proof is run off on the finished product.

Plate Making Outlined

To make a plate is a job that requires from thirty-five minutes to three-quarters of an hour, according to the exhibit. Chemicals necessary include film process developer, film fixing hypo acid, pumice zinc, zinc plate sensitizer, Dragon's blood, nitric acid and lye water. These various chemicals

Nest Staff Photograph

BAGS BIG BUCK — Fred Powell, of 1626 Bedford street, pictured with his wife, Mrs. Martha Lou Powell, was among the sixteen hunters who bagged deer yesterday in Allegany county on the opening day of the five-day season. Powell, hunting on Town Hill, shot the 225-pound buck shown above with a Winchester thirty-thirty rifle, the bullet lodging in the shoulder of the animal. It was the second largest deer reported killed in the county. Claude Keifer, 745 Fayette street, foreman for the Queen City Brewing Company, accompanied Powell on his hunting trip. The buck was taken to the Llewellyn farm, one mile west of Vale Summit, where it will be butchered and prepared to eat. Powell is well known and is manager of the Powell Publicity Service, Jenvey building.

Celanese Lets Contract For Warp Knitting House

New Building, Machinery and Equipment Will Cost $250,000; Work Has Already Started

Continuing a broad expansion program, the Celanese Corporation of America yesterday announced letting a contract for the construction of a warp knitting building for the manufacture of underwear fabrics.

While the construction job, a $52,000 project, has been awarded to the George F. Hazelwood Company, the cover-all cost will amount to $250,000 with air-conditioning, machinery and other equipment.

Monday evening the major will be the guest of honor at a meeting of the Cumberland District committee.

He will be the guest of Dr. A. E. Krause, vice-president of Potomac Council and Fred Sparks, scoutmaster, Tuesday morning at a luncheon arranged for the scouts of the South Branch district in Romney.

The major will address the annual meeting of the New Creek district at Hamill's restaurant, Keyser, Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock. Arrangements are in charge of Prof. E. E. Church, chairman.

To Employ 100 Workers

Approximately 100 more persons will be employed once the work is completed, probably a matter of six months. Fred T. Small, plant manager, announced.

The new building will be a two-story affair 125 by 130 feet and will be constructed of tile, steel and concrete. Excavation work has been started by the Hazelwood firm.

A new warehouse where all shipments and auxiliary services will be handled is now being constructed by the Hazelwood company.

This service will eliminate congestion on the grounds and will also be a helpful factor in controlling traffic on McMullen highway. The buses will be routed through the town.

(Continued on Page 8, Col. 5)

Quiz Is Feature of Meeting Held Here by Club of Human Relations

Thirty-seven Guests Enjoy Turkey Dinner; Speeches Are Taboo

The glibest outfit in town, namely, Cumberland's Club of Human Relations, had a turkey dinner yesterday at the B. O. Y. M. C. A. yesterday evening.

Thirty-six of the thirty-seven guests were polished after dinner speakers. The thirty-seventh was a reporter who does not qualify as an after dinner speaker and who even starts twisting his buttons at the thought of making a speech.

But despite the fact that practically everybody present could have delivered a speech on a moment's notice, not a single after dinner speech was made. In fact, the guests cheered when J. E. Wetzel, Jr., announced there would be no after dinner speeches.

Quiz Features Program

Chief entertainment on the program, other than the turkey dinner, was the quiz conducted by George M. Young. As a Clifton Fadiman, Mr. Young was adequate to the least. However, some of the guests had hardly been termed Know-It-Alls in the Levant, Adams, Kieran, Morley or Taylor sense of the term. However, the questions were funny and the guests had a good time.

Arthur R. Mosler, Jr., commented briefly on the progress of the Town Meetings now being sponsored each Sunday by the club. Future programs were announced as follows:

Dec. 8—"Does America Need Compulsory Health Insurance?"

Dec. 15—"What Has Delayed Our Flood Control Program?"

Dec. 22—"How Can Religion and Philosophy Meet Today's Needs?"

Jan. 5—"How Can We Put the Unemployed Back to Work?"

Jan. 12—"Is There a Revolution in the Arts?"

Jan. 19—"Are Our Schools Doing Their Job?"

Jan. 26—"What's Wrong with the Railroads?"

Feb. 2—"Should We Continue to Restrict Agricultural Production?"

Feb. 9—"What is Cumberland's Industrial Future?"

Feb. 16—"Has Twentieth Century

(Continued on Page 8, Col. 1)

COLDER WEATHER IS PREDICTED TONIGHT; SNOW ALSO FORECAST

Cumberland residents need not be surprised if real wintry weather greets them late today or tonight, and for that matter they can expect cold weather the rest of the week.

The weather forecast for today is cloudy and colder with snow flurries in the northwest portion of the state. The forecast for Wednesday is generally fair.

Weather bureau officials report that cold wave is sweeping southeastward from Western Canada and in all probability it will reach Western Maryland late today or early Wednesday, bringing the lowest temperatures so far this season.

The cold weather from the Northwest is likely to begin its invasion of Maryland late today with the bulk of the cold reaching here Wednesday.

Winds over the state are expected to increase in force from the Northwest today, accompanying the advent of colder weather.

The weather station on Big Savage mountain said the temperature there yesterday dropped to eighteen degrees and reported from three to five inches of snow laying on the ground.

Monday was a bright, sunshiny day in Cumberland but the wind was rather strong making the air quite chilly.

(Continued on Page 8, Col. 1)

Windover Station on Big Savage mountain said the temperature there yesterday dropped to eighteen degrees and reported from three to five inches of snow laying on the ground.

Monday was a bright, sunshiny day in Cumberland but the wind was rather strong making the air quite chilly.

(Continued on Page 8, Col. 1)

Windover Station on Big Savage mountain said the temperature there yesterday dropped to eighteen degrees and reported from three to five inches of snow laying on the ground.

Monday was a bright, sunshiny day in Cumberland but the wind was rather strong making the air quite chilly.

(Continued on Page 8, Col. 1)

Windover Station on Big Savage mountain said the temperature there yesterday dropped to eighteen degrees and reported from three to five inches of snow laying on the ground.

Monday was a bright, sunshiny day in Cumberland but the wind was rather strong making the air quite chilly.

(Continued on Page 8, Col. 1)

Windover Station on Big Savage mountain said the temperature there yesterday dropped to eighteen degrees and reported from three to five inches of snow laying on the ground.

Monday was a bright, sunshiny day in Cumberland but the wind was rather strong making the air quite chilly.

(Continued on Page 8, Col. 1)

Windover Station on Big Savage mountain said the temperature there yesterday dropped to eighteen degrees and reported from three to five inches of snow laying on the ground.

Monday was a bright, sunshiny day in Cumberland but the wind was rather strong making the air quite chilly.

(Continued on Page 8, Col. 1)

Windover Station on Big Savage mountain said the temperature there yesterday dropped to eighteen degrees and reported from three to five inches of snow laying on the ground.

Monday was a bright, sunshiny day in Cumberland but the wind was rather strong making the air quite chilly.

(Continued on Page 8, Col. 1)

Windover Station on Big Savage mountain said the temperature there yesterday dropped to eighteen degrees and reported from three to five inches of snow laying on the ground.

Monday was a bright, sunshiny day in Cumberland but the wind was rather strong making the air quite chilly.

(Continued on Page 8, Col. 1)

Windover Station on Big Savage mountain said the temperature there yesterday dropped to eighteen degrees and reported from three to five inches of snow laying on the ground.

Monday was a bright, sunshiny day in Cumberland but the wind was rather strong making the air quite chilly.

(Continued on Page 8, Col. 1)

Windover Station on Big Savage mountain said the temperature there yesterday dropped to eighteen degrees and reported from three to five inches of snow laying on the ground.

Monday was a bright, sunshiny day in Cumberland but the wind was rather strong making the air quite chilly.

(Continued on Page 8, Col. 1)

Windover Station on Big Savage mountain said the temperature there yesterday dropped to eighteen degrees and reported from three to five inches of snow laying on the ground.</p